Scout Trails

Girl Scouts of Troop 128 recently attended the Senior Girl Scout Mariner Gam at Newport Dunes. Approximately 30 ships, or troops, and 600 girls from the Los Angeles area gathered for this three day Gam. The Mariners of Troop 128, or the Ann McKim ship, planned and prepared for this trip at their weekly meetings.

Friday evening the camp, consisting of three tents, a tarp shelter, a working table, a cache, a grease pit, one drying rack, two washing stands, the ship's flag, and the American flag, was set up. After dinner the girls gathered around the campfire for informal entertainment.

Saturday morning after breakfast the camp was readied for inspection. The mariners took tests on compass, bell time and watches, and ships. There are three divisions in which the ships compete, water skills, land skills and boating. Each ship is awarded a rank, at the end of the Gam, according to the number of points it earned in the competition.

Sunday church services were held, followed by the awards ceremony where the Ann McKim was awarded the rank of sloop.

Mrs. L. H. Voien, is leader; Mrs. C. T. Rippey, Jr., is co-leader, and the troop is sponsored by the Torrance Kiwanis Club. Members are: Judy Bradford, Danielle De Boer, Darlene Gray, Cindy Geirger, Jackie Harmon, Carolyn Jensen, Mary Kane, Jacquie Megow, Gina Peckham, Kathy Rippey, Kay Roberts, Candy Voien, Nancy Whitcomb, Cindy Wicker, Dana Wolinsky, Linda Wyatt, Sharon Stout, Karen Warner, Bonnie Dalton, Barbara Jeffers, and Janis Albright.

Opening the JACS Annual dinner program will be the presentation of colors by a special color guard from the Girl Scout Troop 2101 of Gardena. Climaxing their active participation in various civic events was the recent designation of Troop 2101 as the official "Good Will Representatives" of the City of Gardena to the Century 21—Seattle Worlds Fair.
