South Bay Hadassah Holds Luncheon Meeting Tuesday

Mrs. Max Stern, newly-installed president of the South Bay Chapter of Hadassah presided at the last meeting of the chapter held on Tuesday, in the community room of the American Savings and Loan Association in the South Bay Center.

Mmes. Ernest Tarr and Leo Schleissner were hostesses at the luncheon following the business meeting.

"The Escapist Jewess," a humorous skit, pertaining to what is expected of a Jewish homemaker was presented by the following women: Mmes. David Rabin, John Stern, Irving Kosky, Esmond Kronick, Louis Berkowitz, Daniel Bernstein, Joseph Goldfarb, Barney Versel, Irving Kooba, Harold Greenberg, Joseph Canter, Rupert Adler, Al Feldman and Selma Greenbaum.

MORAL UPLIFT—Signatures of members of Torrance Seventh-day Adventist Church, 1610 Acacia Ave., are included in scroll containing some 20,000 names being held by Southland Adventist temperance directors William Henry (left) and Ellsworth S. Reile. Every available member of the local congregation signed the scroll calling for higher moral responsibility in daily living. Scroll containing local signatures is destined for public display with some 1,000,000 other signatures from 196 countries at Adventists' world conference in San Francisco in July and August.

Adventists Place Signatures on Huge Scroll

David deWaal, 5089 Hallmark, Arlington, temperance director of Torrance Seventh-day Adventist Church, today announced that local signatures of a world-wide campaign to effect greater moral responsibility in everyday life have been placed in a giant scroll set for public exhibit in San Francisco July 26.

"The local signatures, representing members of the 260-member local Adventist church, were attached to a scroll from 84 Southland Adventist churches in Los Angeles, Santa Barbara and Ventura counties at the Adventists' Southern California conference headquarters in Glendale before being sent to Washington, D. C., where they were affixed to the world-wide scroll. This scroll expresses the dedication of more than 1,000,000 persons in 196 countries around the world to high moral principles which view the body as the temple of God and as such believe it should not be violated through any form of intemperance," deWaal stated.

According to the director, the giant scroll will be put on public display at the Adventists' 49th quadrennial world conference being held July 26 through Aug. 4, in San Francisco.

DeWaal said Southland Adventist headquarters has expressed gratitude to the local church congregation for "the dramatic and united way in which your members affirmed themselves toward the upbuilding of a

Parish Carnival Set By Catholic Women

St. Philomena Catholic Church is presenting its annual Parish Carnival, June 9 and 10, on the parish grounds, 21900 So. Main St. The carnival is presented through the joint efforts of the Men's and Women's Councils, under the supervision of Mr. William Cary and Mrs. Clarence Turner, respective presidents of the two councils.

The customary rides will be present again this year and many interesting booths and games will be there to contribute to the entertainment of children and adults alike.

As the climax to the two-day event, a 1962 Falcon station wagon and a 1930 Model A Ford will be given away to two lucky families. A chicken dinner is planned for the 10th, selling for $1 a plate for adults and the special price of 50 cents for a child's portion. However, other food and drinks will be served both days for the convenience of all.
