

Temple Menorah Plans Huge Confirmation Service Friday

Largest Confirmation class in the history of Temple Menorah will conduct the Shavuot (Feast of Weeks — Pentecost) Services on Friday at 4 o'clock. The confirmands will also pledge a Declaration of Faith and read from the Holy Scriptures as part of the liturgy to be conducted in the Temple building at 1101 Camino Real, Redondo Beach.

The 24 students, who are being graduated from their 11 year long studies of Judaism at the Temple religious school, will deliver speeches on the various books of the bible as proof of their competence in Jewish studies.

Besides receiving gifts of Bibles and prayer books from the Sisterhood and Brotherhood, the young people will receive special certificates of Confirmation from the area's oldest and largest Jewish religious congregation.

Class of 1962 is presenting two new Torah covers for the Sacred Scrolls of the Law.

A reception in honor of the confirmands will follow at the conclusion of the service. The public is invited to witness this special service.

Confirmation is held on Shavuot because that is the traditional date when Moses received the Ten Commandments from God on Mount Sinai. There is a tradition in Judaism that the young people in every generation are pledged to study and observe the Laws of God as proof of the faith of the Jewish people in the one God. Shavuot is the holiday

Narbonne Avenue Baptist Church Opens Fund Drive

The Narbonne Avenue Baptist Church will begin a campaign that will help build a 1300 seat auditorium. The fund drive will begin with a banquet on Saturday, June 9, at 7.

The speaker for this important event is D. O. Byran Richardson from Dallas, Texas. Dr. Richardson is an employee of the Texas Baptist Convention. He was the preacher for a tent revival conducted in the area last summer. Dr. Richardson will also speak at the Sunday services at the Lomita church.

Reverend Harvey Bremington, second pastor of the Lomita congregation will also take part in the special occasion. He will also selected by Reform Judaism for confirmation since it is the holiday most in keeping with the concept of vowing and pledging oneself to the ethical monotheism which is Judaism.

community. Even our community should lend its support to this project. With the sudden growth in population we must provide a place for more people to worship God. It is our desire to begin construction within two years."

HONOR

Bo Belinsky, 25-year old rookie southpaw ace of the Los Angeles Angels who is one of the hottest candidates for "Rookie of the Year" honors, showed that he was no flash-in-the-pan when he bounced back on May 20th to beat the Boston Red Sox.

The pastor, Robert A. Wells, had this to say about the two year campaign, "The Lomita church has a real need for a larger Auditorium. The entire congregation is enthusiastic about the prospects of a permanent place to worship. It will be a credit to our community. At present there is no large auditorium in the
