Laurence M. Sargent, a resident of Torrance for the past ten years, and one of three nominees for the fraternity's top office, was elected grand knight of the Los Crusados Council Knights of Columbus, during election held in the council chambers.

The grand knight-elect, chancellor of the Torrance-Redondo Beach fraternal organization for the past year, and Patricia his wife, are the parents of two daughters, Mary Ellen, a junior at Queen of Angels School of Nursing, and Mrs. Donald

J. Plante.

Mr. and Mrs. Sargent, natives of Minneapolis, Minnesota will celebrate their 34th wedding anniversary, Sept. 1, 1962.

Mr. Sargent has been employed by the Minneapolis-Honeywell Company for twenty-eight years.

Sargent, a member of the Fourth Degree's Color Guard and of the Nativity Church's Holy Name Society, will succeed Stacy B. Rodman as the Council's Grand Knight.

Joe Bonchonsky, also of Torrance, was elected Deputy Grand Knight, the Council's second highest office. Anthony W. Beron of Palos Verdes Estates won the Chancellor's position, and Elbert Perry of Torrance was named to the Warden's post. Ken Cunningham will be the new Judge Advocate for the council.

Clarification On Crossing Double Center Line

Prohibition against crossing a solid double center line does not extend to those occasions when you must turn left across such a line to enter or leave a driveway, Capt. E. L. Greer, commander of the California Highway Patrol's South Los Angeles area, said.

He offered the clarification because of several recent questions from residents involving turns across a double center line.

"The same is true of a double line in which one side is broken and the other side solid. Even if the solid portion is on your side of the roadway, you may turn left across it to enter or upon leaving a driveway," he said.
