Camp Board Names Fund-Raising Heads

Mrs. Wesley Muzik, grand regent of Court of Our Lady of Victory 1344, and Mrs. Gust Sundquist, grand regent of Court Sacred Heart, were named co-chairmen of the 1962-63 fund-raising drive at a recent board meeting of Camp Teresita Pines for Girls, sponsored by the Catholic Daughters of America.

Those attending the board meeting besides Mrs. Muzik and Mrs. Sundquist included Mrs. Joseph Cernore of Court St. Catherine, Torrance, and Mrs. Richard Herzog, Court Madonna of the Hills, Hollywood Riviera.

All will be invited to spend a day at the summer camp located in the Big Pines area of the San Gabriel Mountains.

The camp, said to be one of the finest in the county, is open to girls 8 to 14 years of age. It was started 34 years ago and has grown from a few cabins to the largest camp at Big Pines, accommodating 150 girls each period during the summer.

The program is arranged by a competent director, assisted by well-trained counselors. Horseback riding, swimming, handcraft, nature lore, hiking, archery and athletics are some of the activities.

For further information write to Camp Teresita Pines, 717 Burlington, Los Angeles 57.

Miss Vicki Garrod Married Saturday

The Methodist Church in Torrance was the setting for the wedding of Miss Vicki Garrod, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Garrod, 25928 Oak St., Lomita, to Mr. Jorge Vincenti, son of Mr. and Mrs. Feliciano Vincenti of Buenos Aires, Argentina.

Rev. Zimmerman performed the double ring ceremony before 100 guests, on Saturday, June 16, at 4 o'clock in the afternoon.

As she walked down the aisle on the arm of her father, the bride wore a charming, heirloom, dotted Swiss gown designed with a Peter Pan collar, and tiny buttons down the front of the fitted bodice and to the elbow on the leg o'mutton sleeves. The full skirt ended in a ruffle, and had a large, bustle bow in back.

WINDOWS

A window should be more than just a hole in the wall. To make windows important and to make them a lovely feature of the room, frame them beautifully in wood. Many window frame styles are possible, and the wood can be stained a lovely, natural wood color if you want to avoid paint. Hard-wearing Douglas fir is frequently recommended for windows.

Matron of honor, Mrs. Patricia Corbin, wore a yellow cotton, street-length dress and carried a bouquet of yellow carnations.

Sisters of the bride, Misses Jean and Janet Garrod, were bridesmaids, and wore yellow dotted Swiss, and apricot dotted Swiss. They carried matching carnations.

Flower girl was the bride's sister, Paula Garrod. She wore apricot silk or-gandy.

The bride's mother chose a blue sheath covered by a belted tunic.

Best man was Joel Le Doux, and ushers were Glen Garrod and Darwin Fulks.

A reception was held at the church following the ceremony. The guest book was attended by Diana Ford.

The young couple plan a honeymoon for the first week in July, and then will be at home at 26019 Oak St., Lomita.

The bride is a graduate of Narbonne High School, class of 1961, and is now attending Harbor College. She works part time at McCown's Drug Store.

A citizen of Argentina, the bridegroom is in the United States for three years. He is employed by Estey Electronics in Torrance.

Valhalla Lodge Slated to Sponsor Buffet and Dance Friday Night

Valhalla Lodge 664 of the Vasa Order of America has a flag on display at every meeting but no one to claim it. There are six flags on display at times. Old Glory, Swedish, Danish, Finnish, Norwegian and Icelandic.

At the present time the lodge has members claiming either birth, descent, or marriage into four of the Scandinavian countries, but the fifth, Iceland still has no claimants.

This lodge was organized over 70 years ago to help perpetuate the traditions and cooking skill of the Scandinavian people. A scholarship for any young man or woman with the ability to pass requirements is maintained. A youth group to learn the folk dances of the five countries is very active, dancing both in the individual lodges and also traveling to other localities to show off their skill. A 23-acre park is available to all members at any time, in the beautiful Santa Monica Mountains.

Valhalla Lodge 664 is the newest and most recently instituted lodge and is located in Redondo Beach. They meet the first and third Tuesday of each month at the Eagles Hall, 128 South Catalina (corner of Catalina and Garnet). Valhalla Lodge will hold its first annual buffet and dance on Friday night June 29, Eagles Hall. Buffet will start at 6:30 p.m. with dancing to the music of Alton Bergstrom with vocals by Arnold Lindberg starting at 8:30 p.m.

All Scandinavians are cordially invited to attend. For further information regarding Valhalla's activities please call the chairman at FR 9-1171 or the secretary at FR 2-5936 after 6 p.m.

MRS. ROBERT THOMAS HARGRAVE
... four hundred guests

Smith-Hargrave Nuptial Mass Read

Before the altar decked with white gladiolas, Gloria Eileen Smith and Robert Thomas Hargrave recited marriage vows Saturday morning, June 16, at St. Margaret Mary's Catholic Church, Rev. John V. Hegarty, pastor, united the couple in a double ring ceremony.

Beautifully gowned in a chapel length dress of silk organza over taffeta, the bride was sprinkled with seed pearls and crystals. Re-embroidered lace was set into the skirt. She carried white rose buds and stephanotis.

The brides sister, Patricia Savage, was her maid of honor. Bridesmaids attending were Nancy Smith, sister-in-law; Ellen Ransom; Christine Bernstein; and Mildred Dreyer. They were dressed in pale pink silk organza, carried contrasting deep pink roses. Cheryl Raines, tiny niece of bride, was flower girl, also in pink.

The bridegroom's best man was Bob Peterson and ushering were Jim Firlitt, Jerry Coulter, Bob Black and Fred Taugher. The mother of the bride, Mrs. Fred Savage, wore a white silk and matching hat. The groom's mother chose a peacock blue silk and white accessories.

Following the wedding a garden reception was held at the home of the bride's parents. Teri Hamilton was in charge of registering the guests. Four generations of the Hargrave family were in attendance besides numerous college friends of the bride and groom.

The couple is spending two weeks at San Francisco and Lake Tahoe. Upon returning, Mr. and Mrs. Hargrave will live in South Pasadena where the groom will resume teaching at St. John Vianney High School in the Fall.

Mrs. Hargrave is a graduate of Narbonne High School and attended Long Beach State College.

Mr. Hargrave is a graduate of Loyola University and obtained his Masters degree at the University of Chicago. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas K. Hargrave of Lomita.
