Ramblin' Round

With Jay Powell

YOUTH BASEBALL LEAGUE night at ROAD-UM PARK is a welcome and well-appreciated endeavor on the part of Roadium manager Dale Gasteiger to encourage community youth activities.

For the fifth year, the Roadium Theatre is entertaining hundreds of young players each Thursday evening during the baseball season. This is being accomplished by distributing sufficient tickets each week to enable two to four teams per league to attend.

These car-load tickets permit the ball players to bring their whole family, including mom, dad, sisters and brothers, for an evening's entertainment — without any charge or obligation.

Hats off to the Roadium for playing ball with the junior ball players, and for doing their share toward encouraging families to enjoy life together.

SPECIAL-TIME AGAIN at the TOWER DRIVE-IN, 17420 S. Western Ave. This week you can get their delicious dinner for only $1.25 — or a luncheon for 90 cents.

Laura and Dave Zorger are constantly striving to make it worth your while to stop in to see them.

Dining Room open from noon to 9 p.m. Car Service 11 a.m. to 3 a.m. Coffee Shop open 24 hours. Good food at prices you like at any time you like it at the Tower Drive-In.

Opening Night of 'Seven Year Itch' Riotous Success

Opening night's performance of "The Seven Year Itch" by George Axelrod at Chapel Theatre in Torrance was as expected — a riot of fun.

Huge congratulations are in order to Larry G. Boyd of Redondo Beach for casting and doing such a wonderful job of directing one of the most delightful comedies to be shown in the South Bay area. From opening to closing there was never a dull moment, and hardly pause enough for breath between laughter.

When the curtains parted, there was a generous burst of applause for the magnificent set created by Steve Sands, co-producer with Don Gish of Chapel Theatre, with Le Shel Interiors of Torrance responsible for the set dressing.

Frank Herman, who stars as Richard in this comedy, and is also the star of KTLA's Cartoon Carousel show on TV, has captured the hearts of his adult audience at Chapel Theatre as he has his children audience on TV. If one is doubtful as to what a magician — ventriloquist might be capable of in an acting role before he sees dancing lessons the easy, casual way at the GABLE ROUSE DANCE STUDIO, 22501 Hawthorne Blvd.

Jerry Goree, who has been managing the studio for about a year now, assisted by his very pretty wife, Darlene, lets you set the pace and make your own terms.

Matter of fact, for the next two weeks you can have three lessons for whatever you may think their worth. Fair enough. N'est-ce pas?

The Dance Studio puts on a dancing show every Wednesday night, just before the Gable House Twist Contest starts.

One of the studio partners, Bob Hefner, MC's the twist show.

Class lessons for teenagers and for adults are being formed now. The phone number is FR 5-3938.

Herman perform, all such doubts are erased by the enthusiastic energetic and most charming characterization of Richard and his wild day dreams, even before the first scene ends.

Herman is so natural in his performance, plus the fact that he cannot resist ad-libbing occasionally, which makes his role even more realistic. His has a very difficult role as he must assume the same position at the end of each dream sequence as he has before it starts, and the timing for easing in and out of these imaginings went off like clockwork.

The kiddies better watch out, or they will lose their "Skipper Frank" to the adult world, if this is any indication of what Frank Herman can do on a stage!

All in all, if the first-nighter audience was any barometer, there will be steady laughter in Chapel Theatre for the next three weekends at least!

Jeanne Appel of Torrance is perfectly cast in the role of The Girl Upstairs, the role made famous by Marilyn Monroe, but Jeanne portrays her own version and is "as cute as a button" with her gestures, movements, and seemingly sweet, innocence.

Pleasing to note is the fact that none of her actions are overdone. As always, Denton Wable of Redondo Beach is fabulous in his characterization of Dr. Brubaker the psychiatrist.

If we have not peace within ourselves it is in vain to seek it from outward sources.
