

A Day at Camp

KNOT BOARD — Holding a knot board they helped make are (left to right) Camp Fire Girls Jodean McGraw, 12, 25313 Western Ave., Los Angeles; Alice Listowski, 12, 18807 Cerise Ave.; and Nancy Davis, 12, 2452 W. 227th St.

CHARADES—Bluebird Karen Fadick, 8, 17105 Glenburn, entertains her friends with charades during an early afternoon rest period at the Camp Fire Girls Day Camp in Torrance Park.

ROCK DISPLAY — Bluebird Mary Ann Loeb, 9, 523 N. Leland, San Pedro; Mrs. William Sterling, a "rock hound"; and Camp Fire Girl Linda Congleton (holding book), 10, 6618 Via del Collado, proudly show a collection of rocks.

Mortgage Field Graduates Man From Torrance

The School of Mortgage Banking of the Mortgage Bankers Association of America has awarded a Certificate of Graduation to Robert Tolson, Construction Loan Officer, the Colwell Company, Los Angeles.

Tolson, who successfully completed the school's three-year program, resides at 1413 Konya Drive, Torrance.

Tolson attended Torrance schools; Compton College, where he received his associate arts degree; and the school of commerce at the University of Southern California, where he received his bachelor in science degree.

Tolson is a member of St. Andrews Episcopal Church, Alpha Eta Rho (aviation fraternity), Yung Home Builders Assn. and the Southern California Mortgage Bankers Assn.

The construction loan officer, a lieutenant commander retired of the United States Navy Reserves, is the father of four, Cindy, 12; Bobby, 10; Billy, 6, and Susan, 1.

Open only to the more than 2000 members firms of the Association, the MBA School of Mortgage Banking is the only complete and comprehensive post-graduate and adult educational course for those working in the mortgage industry.

Its curriculum embraces every facet of the various operations which go into mortgage lending and mortgage investing. In addition to three one-week sessions on-campus, students must complete two eleven-month home-study programs between sessions.

Upon satisfactory completion of the sessions, written examinations, and home-study assignments, students are awarded a Certificate of Graduation from the Mortgage Bankers Association of America and the school of Business, Northwestern University.
