

News Of Servicemen

Cadet Kenneth R. Weeks, 20, son of Mr. and Mrs. Russell R. Weeks, 4722 Towers St., Torrance, completed six weeks of training at the Reserve Officer Training Corps (ROTC) summer camp at Fort Lewis, Wash., Aug. 3.

Cadet Weeks is a 1959 graduate of North High School and is active in the ROTC program at the University of California, Santa Barbara.

AIRMAN BASIC Fred L. McLellan, son of Mrs. Dorothy L. McLellan, 1327 Island Ave., Wilmington, is being reassigned to the United States Air Force technical training course for aircraft maintenance specialists at Sheppard AFB, Tex. He is a 1962 graduate of Banning High School.

Second Lieutenant John C. Schenk of Torrance has entered the United States Air Force navigator training at James Connally AFB, Tex.

Lieutenant Schenk, a graduate of Washington State University, Pullman, will receive radar and celestial navigation training in Air Force T-29 "Flying Classroom" aircraft. He will be awarded the silver wings of a navigator upon completion of the course.

The son of Mr. and Mrs. John A. Schenk of 3309 So. So. Torrance, the lieutenant is married to the former Joan M. Renneburg of Route No. 1, Selah, Wash.

Robert A. Calkins, seaman recruit, USN, son of Mr. and Mrs. Harold A. Calkins of 2270A Date Ave., Torrance, was scheduled to complete recruit training Aug. 3 at the Naval Training Center, San Diego.

During the nine-week indoctrination period, recruits are trained in physical fitness, basic military law, military drill, customs and etiquette of the naval service, swimming and survival, first aid and basic shipboard routine.

During the training, recruits receive tests and interviews which determine future training and assignments in the Navy.

Marine Pvt. Michael D. Stittsworth, son of Mr. and Mrs. H. Stittsworth of 1710 W. 235th St., Torrance, completed four weeks of individual combat training, Aug. 3, at Camp Pendleton, Calif.

The training, conducted by the Second Infantry Training Regiment, is part of that undergone by all Marines before they join the Fleet Marine Force.

During the training, emphasis is placed on tactical matters. Learning the field and combat skills, the Marines prepare to take their places in small fighting units—the four-man fire teams and the 13-man squads.

Vernon L. Cole, son of Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence W. Cole of 20413 Budlong St., Torrance completed recruit training, July 27, at the Naval Training Center, San Diego, Calif.

The nine-week basic training was highlighted by a recruit brigade review, where some 3,000 bluejackets passed in review before military officials and civilian dignitaries.

The training includes drill, physical fitness, customs and courtesies of the naval service, swimming and survival, first aid, military law and basic knowledge of shipboard routine.

During the training recruits receive tests and are interviewed to determine future training in the Navy.

Airman Second Class David B. Minnis of Torrance, is being reassigned to Moron AB, Spain, following his graduation from the United States Air Force technical training course for aircraft radio-repairmen here. Airman Minnis was trained to operate, test, and repair interphone and emergency radio equipment.

A graduate of Torrance High School, the airman entered the service in September 1961. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. David Minnis, 2431 Border Ave., Torrance.

Airman Basic David R. Triggs, son of Orville D. Triggs, Oak Grove, Mo., is being reassigned to the United States Air Force technical training course for radio and radar maintenance specialists at Keesler AFB, Miss.

Airman Triggs, who has completed his basic military training here, was selected for the advanced course on the basis of his interests and aptitudes.

His mother is Mrs. Edith M. Fister of 2701 Normallin, Torrance. He is a graduate of Oak Grove (Mo.) High School.

Army Pvt. Jerry D. Johnson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Vergil B. Johnson, 22809 Doble Ave., Torrance, recently completed the 11-week ordnance electronic entry course at The Signal School, Fort Monmouth, N.J.

Johnson received instruction in the application of electronics principles to the repair and maintenance of integrated fire control and guided missile equipment.

The 23-year-old soldier entered the Army in January 1962 and completed basic training at Fort Ord.

He is a 1957 graduate of Narbonne High School in Lomita and attended the University of California College of Engineering at Los Angeles.

Before entering the Army, Johnson was employed by North American Aviation, Inc.

John M. Crowson, seaman, USN, son of Mr. and Mrs. Lester R. Crowson of 3211 W. 188th St., Torrance, is serving aboard the submarine USS Razorback, which is participating in the annual "Sea Fair" festivities at Seattle, Wash.

Representing the First Fleet, the unit is one of many which took more than 3,000 Bluejackets to the Northwest for the event. The "Mardi Gras of Seattle," the Sea Fair will be highlighted by the world's championship unlimited hydroplane race on Lake Washington.

Doctor John A. Beeman of Torrance, who recently came to active duty in the United States Air Force in the rank of captain, has completed the orientation course for officers of the medical service here.

The doctor, son of Dr. and Mrs. John W. Beeman of 1518 El Prado Ave., Torrance, was given familiarization instruction covering administrative procedures, military medicine and medical service support of USAF objectives.

Captain Beeman is a physician. He is being reassigned to Hamilton AFB, Calif. Doctor Beeman received his B.A. degree from Occidental College, Los Angeles, Calif., and his M.D. degree from the George Washington University School of Medicine, Washington, D.C. He is a member of Phi Chi.

The doctor is married to the former Barbara Gill of 712 S. Overlook Dr., Alexandria, Va. They have one child.

Cadet John P. Wulffson of Palos Verdes Estates, a member of the Air Force Reserve Officer Training Corps (AFROTC) unit at the University of Arizona, prepares to take off on an orientation flight in an Air Force T-38 jet trainer here.

Cadet Wulffson, son of Mr. and Mrs. John F. Wulffson of 3620 Via Palomino, Palos Verdes Estates, has completed his junior year of advanced AFROTC participation at Arizona and is undergoing a special course of summer operational training at this base.

He will observe and actively participate in various phases of base operations during the four-week period. Following his college graduation, he will be eligible for appointment as an Air Force second lieutenant.
