

"WHO'S WHO" BUSINESS INDEX

AT LOMITA AUTO WASH, George Kessler and his staff of 20 are devoted to their customers. "Extra Care for Your Car" is the motto of this car wash. Lomita Auto Wash was recently reconditioned and new equipment installed. In addition to fine car washing, they are experts at polishing and waxing, upholstery cleaning and motor steaming. If you are particular about your car and how it is cared for, try Lomita Car Wash and let them show how conscientious they are. They are open from 9 to 5 daily, from 8:30 to 9 Saturdays, and from 8:30 to 2 Sundays. Lomita Auto Wash is located at 25825 Narbonne at the corner of Pacific Coast Highway.

FLOWERS SWIMMING POOL SUPPLY—Everything for the swimming pool—and then some—can be found at Flowers, 1517 W. Carson. Employee Fay Pearson and owners Robert and Russell Flowers (left to right) opened the business May 7. Among items offered are surf boards, polyethylene resin, pigment paint for surf boards and fiberglass. Flowers also offers service and maintenance, acid baths and chemicals and accessories. Owner Bob is a graduate chemist with more than 15 years of experience in the field. He is president of a Long Beach chemical company.

W. C. WIESE, 2019 Pacific Coast Hwy., Lomita, owns and operates the Harness and Saddle Shop. This is a unique trade and one which requires a love of horses and people. 1910 is the origin of the owner's experience, when he started making harness for use in the trotting rings in an eastern state. Now he makes distinctive Custom Made Saddles, Gun Belts and Riding Equipment. Repairing is also a specialty. His many satisfied customers point with pride to the quality workmanship displayed in his handwork. If you are looking for something "better" than "best," drop in and see Walt Wiese. The saddlemaker is on hand to greet you from 9 a.m. to 5 p.m., Monday through Saturday. Remember, the bride trails will be calling this summer—be ready!
