* TORRANCE * CARSON

VOLUME XIV, NUMBER 71

near-record high.

Blvd.

rance.

May Verna Allen, 61, of 2613 W. 225th St., Torrance, died shortly after

Lee Hasson, 21, of 3510 Garnet St., apartment A, Tor-

The driver was not held.

Ronald B. Smith, 26, of Hawthorne, was injured

when his car rammed a train in heavy fog Satur-

Police said Smith's car

Carrier

Boys

Wanted

day morning.

instances.

* LOMITA * AVALON

Man Hurt in

Train Wreck

TORRANCE - The first rash of holiday traffic accidents has left one woman dead and nearly a dozen in-

Police and California Highway Patrolmen listed a total of 65 accidents throughout the area, with fog expect-

WRAPPING PACKAGE during Christmas shopping rush is Karen Keller, student at Torrance High School, who obtained holiday job through local office of Youth Employment Service.

Lending a hand is Lou Schlanger, manager of downtown Men's Shop. See other photos on page A-3 - PRESS photo

Teen-Age Job Service Winning New Approval

are job hunting more these says, but more are needed, partment of Employment, days, but finding less.

And Youth Employment Youth Employment Service Service is out to solve the problem. Touth Employment service are carefully screened and interviewed prior to place-"We've got teen-agers ment with an employer.

we've got teen-agers qualified for all types of jobs," says one YES spokes-sible, into similar fields of man, "and we're beginning endeavor. to make our mark."

The problem, it seems, tunity for employers and for lies in community apathy the teen-agers, too," the to helping its teen citizens service says.

cants, but few requirements. ly from 1 to 5 p.m. by call-

TORRANCE - Teenagers gardening jobs, the service tion with the California De-

Prosecutor to "It's a wonderful opportunity for employers and for find part-time jobs. Youth Additional information for ciation this week announced Employment Service has employers and teen-agers the election of Charles F. struck a Santa Fe Railroad tank car on Crenshaw Blvd. files full of capable appli- seeking jobs is available dai- "Monty" Catterlin, Torrance south of Dominguez St. Many teenagers have been ing FAirfax 0-1361. The city prosecutor and local at- He was taken to Little placed in baby sitting and service is offered in conjunctorney, as president of the Company of Mary Hospital. group for 1963.

> ing College of the Law, Uni- COLLECTION DELAYED versity of California in 1957, TORRANCE — City crews room. Catterlin has practiced law will not collect refuse fireman hoisted it upstairs. in Torrance since 1958. He Christmas day or New Years was appointed city prosecu- Day so employes may have through a door, however, it tor in 1959 and continues to seasonal holidays. serve in that capacity.

Cartterlin was prominent in the city's successful effort to relocate the Southwest District Superior Court in Torrance. He was one of two attorneys who argued the case for the local bar association.

Torrance Chamber of Com-merce, Century Club of the YMCA and the Redtndo Beach Elks Lodge. He is a frequent speaker on law enforcement to numerous civic DA 5-1515 frequent speaker on law en-

A graduate of the Hast- ficers said.

He has been active in community affairs and is a member of Torrance Rotary.

The South Bay Bar Asso-

ed to keep the number at a ... Between the Lines midnight Friday from in-Calling on a new account juries suffered four hours orrance Press adman Jim earlier in an auto-peacstrian accident on Sepulve- Hegarty was greeted by receptionist, Murray, who reda Blvd, west of Crenshaw ferred him to office manager, Finnigan, who finally Police said the woman aparently was led to death by sent him to Bryan at the main office, who was on a a dog, which witnesses said pulled her into the path of an auto driven by Donnis To Ireland, no doubt.

Not only does the Weather Bureau continue to astound us with its prognostications - now it's added new intrique.

That mystery hour known vaguely as "forenoon" has been joined by an even more mysterious "mid-forenoon."

Maybe it's just us. But haven't you wondered,

City officials shelled out The car was demolished, of s612 for a refrigerator last week, earmarking it for the Fire Department recreation

> The thing arrived, and the When they tried to get it wouldn't fit.

Collections will be made Now they've sent the rethe following day in both frigerator back and ordered two smaller ones - one for each shift. Moral Plan ahead.

It's not often that we here at the Press can take time to thank our many loyal friends for their sup-

Christmastime, it seems, is the only chance we get. From all of us, sincere wishes for a joyous Christmas and a happy, prosperous New Year.

FIRST OUT-FIRST READ

ORRANCE PRESS

3238 SEPULVEDA BLVD. - Phone DA 5-1515

Woman Dies in Holiday

Traffic Accident Rash

TROPHY WINNER is Walt Miller Jr., 18319 Mansel Ave. Young Miller won Junior Chamber of Comerce award for best display in religious division of Outdoor Decoration Contest, Project took Miller three days. Other winner was Russell C. Mayer, 4919 Laurette St., who was awarded trophy for best Novelty display.

-PRESS photo

TOY PROJECT conducted by local branch of Amvets gets a start at home of Ann and Glen Hester, 23016 S. Berendo Ave. Members, including Estell George (left) packed toys for needy children throuhout Torrance area. Many were donated by Mattel toys of Hawthorne.

Religious Rites Mark Christmas Celebration

cognition throughout the dren will present a special White organist. Torrance area this week as "Love Traps conding" of the conding of the co Torrance area this week as special services are conduct-christmas cantata by John the Wayfarer's Chapel at 5

be sung at Narbonne Ave. ing by David Wesson

The religious aspects of Baptist Church at 7:30 p.m. Miss Kimi Hanaoka wil Christmas will be given re- today. Sunday school chil- be planist and Mrs. Ruth A Christmas candlelight ed in local churches Christ-w. Peterson, will be pre-p.m. today, sented by the choir of Tor-Christma Services at Christ the rance Foursquare Gospel St Lawrence Martyr Parish, King Lutheran Church, 2706 Church at 7:15 p.m. today, 1900 Tulita Ave., have been W. 182nd St., are set for Featured soloists will be set for 7, 8, 9, 10 and 11:15 8:30 and 11 a.m. today and MissNoni Johnson. Lewis a.m. and 12:15. 11 p.m. tomorrow night. Servaas, Robert Walker and The Children's choir will Christmas service will be at Mrs. James Lowen, Costum be featured at the 8 a.m. ing will be handled by Mrs. service and the parish choir A Christmas cantata will George Randolph and light- at the 5.45 and 10 a.m. serv-

Traffic Scoreboard Inside the Press

cidents	Last Week	This Year So For	Last Year Total	ClassifiedB6-
tal	1	5	10	Women
ury	- 10	490	486
n-Injury	15	664	692	Church
TAL	26	1159	1188	TV Log

GRIDIRON HOPEFULS set their sights on success Dec. 29 as both vie for separate honors. Sandra DeGroot, 13, is among candidates for queen of Strawberry Bowl game, being played as finale to local Pop Warner League season. Ron Pendleton, 14, will compete on team facing Houston Jaycees. Both teams are unde- 11 a.m. feated. Game and crowning of queen will be conducted day-long at Serra High School, Gardena, next Saturday.