

Women

RONNIE SAUNDERS, Society Editor

☆ TELEPHONE DA 5-1515

OBSERVING 16TH BIRTHDAY of Temple Menorah Sisterhood at a noon luncheon tomorrow will be (l-r) Mmes. Eugene Kisknick, co-chairman; Philip Weinstein, president; and Laurence Rodson, luncheon chairman. The event will be in the community hall of the temple. Musical entertainment will be provided by Beatrice Yaaron, singer. —PRESS photo

MODELING HATS for the hat fashion show to be conducted by the South Bay Mothers of Twins Club are Mrs. Duane Busch and Mrs. Martin Keniry, as Mrs. Vera Lockyer, hat shop manager, looks on. The event will take place at noon Saturday at St. Andrew's Presbyterian Church, Redondo Beach.

MAKING APRONS for the annual midwinter benefit of Court St. Catherine, Catholic Daughters of America, are (l-r) Mmes. Theresa Finlayson, Louis Derouin, and Laurence Derouin.

The benefit will be staged at 8 p.m. Thursday at Nativity Annex, Engracia and Arlington St. Also available for purchase will be homemade cake. —PRESS photo

Marcia Chamberlain Weds Gerald Easton

In a double-ring ceremony performed at 8 p.m. Jan. 4 at the First Baptist Church of Lomita, Miss Marcia Chamberlain became the bride of Gerald Lee Easton. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Morris E. Chamberlain of Lomita and he is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Dale L. Easton of Jackson, Mich.

The wedding was solemnized by Rev. James W. Hardin before 250 guests. For the wedding the sanctuary was decorated with candle-labra and baskets of flowers.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, was dressed in a full length white satin gown fashioned with a sweetheart neckline, long sleeves, bell skirt and cummerbund. She carried a white bible with white roses and lily of the valley.

Miss Sylvia Jean Moor, maid of honor, wore a jade green pea de soie dress with a full skirt. Dressed in matching gowns were Linda Easton and Sharon Chamberlain, bridesmaids. The bride's mother was attired in a gold brocade sheath.

Attending the bridegroom were Bill Easton, best man, Ricky Chamberlain, ring bearer, and Ray Chamberlain, Jim Chamberlain and Jack Chamberlain, ushers. Ronnie Chamberlain and Nancy Talley were candle-lighters.

Mrs. Sharley Brohanier, soloist, rendered "Because" and "The Lord's Prayer." Neal Denin was organist.

Immediately following the ceremony a reception was held at the church. Anne Rohl presided at the guest book. Assistant were Mmes. Ethel Rohl, Sue Lewis, Dorothy Hozan, Corrine Talley, Ann Baillie and the Misses Judy Baillie, Diana Talley, and Linda Rohar.

A past honored queen of Bethel 137, Job's Daughters, the bride is employed as assistant to an orthodontist. She is a graduate of Narbonne High School and attended Harbor College.

A graduate of Western High School, Parnia, Mich., the bridegroom is currently serving with the U.S. Navy in Coronado.

The couple will reside in San Diego.

MRS. GERALDINE EASTON ... former Marcia Chamberlain (Seeman photo)

Women Voters Set State League Day

Seven women from Torrance and five residents of the Palos Verdes peninsula will represent the two local League of Women Voter units at a meeting of the League of Women Voters of California to be held in Glendale Jan. 15.

Featured speaker at "State League Day" will be Dr. Dwayne Marvick, associate professor of political science of the University of California at Los Angeles who will discuss the impact of the 1962 election on the parties in the state, on the California legislative process, and the shape of political alignments in the 1964 picture.

Purpose of state league day is to acquaint members of the 68 local leagues in the state to meet regionally to discuss the organization's program and share ideas on various phases of league work. Attending the Glendale meeting will be members from local leagues as far north as San Luis Obispo and as far south as San Dieguito.

Representing the Provisional League of Women Voters of Torrance will be: Mmes. James Hawkins Emery Reeves, Louis Lanza, Albert Nadel, Warren Shallies, Carl Pearlston and C. E. Mabry.

Attending from the League of Women Voters of the Palos Verdes Peninsula will be: Mmes. Norwich Ross, J. D. Schetzer, Nicholas Shishkoff, Melzar Jones and Harry Morgan Jr.

Members of the Torrance and Palos Verdes groups together with representatives of the Santa Monica League participated in a telephone conference interview with Alphonso Bell, congressman from the 28th district, in Washington, D.C. this week.

Newlyweds to Make Home in Oregon

Miss Phyllis Jean Swanson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. L. R. Swanson of Torrance, became the bride of Russell Lee Smith, son of Mr. and Mrs. Russel Smith of Bellflower in a double-ring ceremony performed at 8 p.m. Wednesday, Dec. 26, at the First Lutheran Church, Torrance.

Rev. William L. Rolerder officiated at the candlelight service before an altar decorated for the holiday wedding with flocked trees and baskets of glads and carnations.

Escorted by her father, the bride wore a white pea de soie gown with a lace brocade front panel fashioned with a bustle and short train. She carried a bouquet of white roses and stephanotis.

Miss Marilyn Swanson, maid of honor, was attired in a royal blue velvet gown with a matching veiled headpiece and slippers and carried a bouquet of blue carnations.

Bridesmaids were the Misses Patricia McNeese and Betsey McWilliams. Their gowns matched that of the maid of honor, and their bouquets were of white carnations.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Swanson chose a turquoise brocade taffeta gown with blue accessories. The mother of the bridegroom selected a rose beige lace dress with brown accessories.

Stephen Dudley was best man. His attendants were Allen Swanson, Don Swanson and Douglas Swanson Jr.

Joyce Spencer, soloist, sang the "Wedding Prayer" and the "Lord's Prayer."

Following the ceremony a reception took place at the church. Miss Virginia Purgrass presided at the guest book. Assistants were Mrs. L. Phillips, George Portlock, Carl Johnson, Wesley McGow and Earl Moeller.

Following a honeymoon trip to Santa Barbara and San Francisco, the couple is at home in Salem, Oregon, where the bridegroom is studying forestry at Oregon State College.

A graduate of Narbonne High School and Long Beach State College, the bride teaches school in Salem.

Prior to enrolling in Oregon State College, the bridegroom attended Long Beach State College, and Polytechnic High School in Long Beach.

Mothers of Twins Bonnets to Bloom

By MRS. GLENN SMITH

"The bonnets that bloom in the spring, tra-la, ..." — and there will be blooming bonnets aplenty for guests and members of the South Bay Mothers of Twins Club to admire at their luncheon and hat fashion show to be held at 12 noon, Saturday, Jan. 10, at St. Andrews Presbyterian Church, Redondo Beach.

Narrating the show will be Mrs. Vera Lockyer, formerly hat designer and couturier of Kent, England who is now with the Paris Hat Fashions in South Bay Shopping Center. The lovely models, all members of Mothers of Twins Club, will be Mrs. Gordon Anderson, Mrs. Ronald Eisman, Mrs. Gordon Garrett, Mrs. James Musereau, Mrs. William Seaman and Mrs. Ron Strawn.

Mrs. Lockyer will demonstrate how to place a hat on the head so as to create the best image. "We take it for granted that we know how to place a hat on your heads, but almost every woman needs to be shown how to wear her hats so as to best compliment her." She stated types of hats appropriate for every occasion will be modeled, including the "basic" hat for each season.

Proceeds from the luncheon and hat fashion show will go to support the club's needy adopted family, according to Mrs. Richard Cassell, chairman.

The regular January business meeting will be a coffee-and-dessert to be held at the home of Mrs. Cassell in Hollywood Riviera Monday Jan. 21.

Any interested mother of twins or triplets is invited to attend and asked to phone Mrs. Ronald Eisman of Torrance for further information.

PTA News

TREASURE HUNTING

Anza PTA will go treasure hunting through art at their Jan. 17, 1963 meeting to be held at 7:30 p.m. in the school cafeteria.

An art workshop will be up in various corners of the cafeteria and the audience will enjoy the privilege of participating in various forms of art from water coloring to mosaics. Art activities will be conducted by Mrs. Roxv Battles, Mrs. Laddon Ross, Mrs. Frances Hood, Mrs. Elizabeth Patterson and Lynn Eden, teachers at Anza School. Materials on hand will be furnished and discussion of art in all forms will be encouraged.

Mrs. J. J. Moore, president of the PTA, will call the meeting to order and the Pledge of Allegiance will be given by Girl Scout Troop 266. Mrs. Keith White, art chairman will help with program, and inspirational will be given by Mrs. Charles Eichler.

Refreshments will be served by the Kindergarten mothers who will be the hostesses for the evening.

MRS. RUSSEL SMITH ... former Phyllis Swanson (Seeman photo)