

NOT MY CUP O' TEA, says Mrs. Hil-da Ballard (right) who has been in the United States only 18 months and lives at 1806 W. 247th St., Lomita. Mrs. Jean Berch, of 1544 W. 207th St., Torrance, who came to the U.S. from Scotland seven years ago, assures her English friend that it's possible to get used to coffee—and like it. The two are 50 percent of the four organizers of an International Club at the Torrance YWCA. Objective is "World Fellowship in Action." Women born in other countries are invited to the first meeting, Wednesday, Feb. 13, at the YW, 2330 W. Carson St., Torrance. Call FA 0-2255 for additional information.

NEXT SUNDAY in The Press you can find out what the above man with a broom is doing. He's playing a game that's not commonly known in this country, but is growing by leaps and bounds in popularity here in Torrance. It's fun. See if you can guess what it is.

Public Likes Tiki Tabu

Tiki Tabu, the Southland's only authentic Polynesian apartment, is enjoying "fantastic public acceptance," according to manager Dick Alyward.

Listing only six apartments left out of an original 35, when it opened only three weeks ago, Alyward said, "These Ray Watt developed Gold Medallion furnished apartments, centrally located at 3505 Artesia Blvd. in Torrance, offer the ultimate in relaxed Polynesian living with all the modern conveniences." Each of the luxury apartments features a large living room, bath with built-in dressing room and kitchen with General Electric range, oven, refrigerator, garbage disposal and water heater.

The large year-round heated tropic pool serves as the focal point of living for Tiki Tabu residents. Outdoor activities are centered in the special poolside Tiki Hut complete with barbecue and kitchen facilities.

Authentic Polynesian furnishings in these $99.50 single apartments have been especially re-created by Craftsmen Interiors for the Tiki Tabu.

Pointing out that the six remaining apartments are available for rental, Alyward says that additional information may be obtained by calling 323-7809.

National Cash Names Daniel P. Gillespie

The appointment of Daniel P. Gillespie to the newly created post of operations manager has been announced by Donald E. Eckdahl, manager of the Electronics division of National Cash Register Co., Hawthorne.

Gillespie will be responsible for the engineering, manufacturing, and quality control departments, and will also supervise industrial relations.

Gillespie joined the division in September, 1955, as director of industrial relations, a position he previously had held with Mission Appliance Corp. He assumed additional duties in 1958.

A BANK CHECKING ACCOUNT without a GLENDALE FEDERAL SAVINGS ACCOUNT is like a hammer without nails. You Need Both

A hammer is an important building tool...but its usefulness is limited without nails. To build, you need both. Just as you don't limit yourself in building, don't limit yourself in handling money by using the services of only one financial institution. To build a sound financial structure, you need a bank checking account to pay monthly bills—together with a high-profit savings account at Glendale Federal Savings, where your money earns over 35% more than a commercial bank pays on a comparable savings account, comparably insured. So, for a checking account, use any bank...for high earnings on savings, Glendale Federal.
