South High Elects Ely President

Dan Ely has been elected student body president of South High School, heading a slate of officers chosen in recent elections.

The president of the Lettermen's Club, Ely is the son of Lt. Col. and Mrs. Lawrence Ely, 809 Calle Maramar, Hollywood Riviera. He previously served as commissioner of athletics for the school. Dan has been active in basketball, football, and baseball and has served as vice president of Apollos, student service organization.

Elected to presidencies of their respective classes are: Rick Coulter, seniors; Raul Matute, juniors; Pam Arndt, sophomores; and Kathy Kimes, freshman. Helen Marich and Ken Klempen were chosen presidents of the Boys' and Girls' Leagues, respectively.

Other student body officers are: Linda Anderson, student body vice president; Sue Shields, commissioner of records; Sue Steele, commissioner of finance; Lynn Bowman, corresponding secretary; Sue Alven, commissioner of pep; Bob Woodrum, commissioner of athletics; Vicki Hoffman, commissioner of publicity; Sherrie Reed, commissioner of public relations; Sue Hovey, club coordinator; DeAnn Armbrust, commissioner of activities; and Jane Boyer, commissioner of student control.

Class offices were filled as follows:

Seniors — Rick Coulter, president; Kathy Fuller, vice president; Sharon Venable, secretary; Gloria Notman, treasurer; Kay Simmons, Girls' League representative; and Ed Kline, Boys' League representative.

Juniors — Raul Matute, president; Skip Sedgwick, vice president; Mary Jane Collins, secretary; Pat Lewis, treasurer; Sue Beck, Girls' League representative; Rick Gilbert, Boys' League representative.

Sophomores — Pam Arndt, president; Allen Luger, secretary; Paddi Benson, treasurer; Lynn Poser, Girls' League representative;

League representative. Girls' League — Helen Marich, president; Kathy Reed, vicepresident; Jane Rombold, recording secretary; Judy Moore, corresponding secretary; Sherry Stewart, treasurer; Ginn Sweet, historian.

Boys' League — Kennet Klempen, president; John Hughes, vice president; James Hall, secretary; and Alan Albright, treasurer.

THE "12TH COUNTY" During the 1950-1960 census, Torrance and the South Coast area had a larger numerical gain in population than all but 11 counties in the United States.

Firebee Contract Goes To Ryan in San Diego

Production of Q-2C Firebees is assured at Ryan Aeronautical Company's San Diego plant through 1964 with award of a new contract for nearly $6 million.

The order is for more than 150 of the target missiles. Approximately three-fourths will be delivered to the Navy, the remainder to the Air Force.

The production order is the fifth in a series dating back more than three years, and brings the total of the most advanced Firebees to more than 900.
