

BRUCE JONES, manager of the Torrance branch of the Bank of America, has been elected to the board of directors of Riviera Community Hospital.

News Of Servicemen

Torrance area men in the armed forces of the United States are dotted around the world in various posts of duty. Among those The Press has word from recently include:

Cadet Merrill E. Eastcott Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Elmitt Eastcott, of 3730 W. 176th St., Torrance. He has been named to squadron activities officer with the rank of cadet first lieutenant at the Air Force Academy at Colorado Springs, Colo.

Cadet Eastcott will graduate this year, and receive a B.S. degree, as well as a commission in the Air Force as a second lieutenant.

Also from the Air Force Academy comes word from Cadet Barry G. Flanary, son of Mr. and Mrs. E. S. Flanary, of 18717 Yukon Ave., Torrance.

Cadet Flanary will wear a silver wreath of distinction upon his sleeve as assistant element officer. Cadet Flanary will graduate from the Academy in 1964.

The Marine Corps reports that Sgt. Lewis A. Marchetti Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Lewis A. Marchetti, of 1942 Reynosa Dr., Torrance, has returned to El Toro Marine Corps Air Station.

Sgt. Marchetti spent three weeks in combat exercises in Arizona. Included was rocket firing in the desert near Yuma.

Another Marine, Pvt. James M. Peterson Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. James M. Peterson, of 2323 W. 239th St., Torrance, has completed his recruit training at the Marine Corps Recruit Depot in San Diego.

Three weeks are spent by recruits on the rifle range, where Peterson fired the M-14 rifle and received other instructions on infantry weapons.

Two Torrance men are serving aboard the attack aircraft carrier U.S.S. Constellation in the Navy, which was part of a combined force of 20 ships on Exercise Saddle Blanket off the coast of Southern California.

They are Elwyn F. Reedy, chief electronic technician, the son of Mrs. Ethel E. Scott, of 1900 W. Artesia Blvd., and Larry D. Young, fireman apprentice, son of Mr. and Mrs. Douglas E. Young, of 22129 Neptune Ave.

The exercise dealt largely with anti-submarine warfare. Cruisers, destroyers, submarines and logistics ships also were on the operation.

Albert W. Burns, chief gunner's mate, son of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Woolman, of 5028 Laurette St., Torrance, is serving aboard the U.S.S. Wedderburn, a destroyer operating in the western Pacific.

The Wedderburn is attached to the Seventh Fleet as part of our "ready armed forces" in the Far East. The ship will visit Hong Kong and the Philippines.

From the Army comes word that Pvt. Wayne D. Nielson, son of Mrs. Axel R. Nielson, of 5016 Lillian St., Torrance, has completed eight weeks of advanced training as a cannoner at Fort Sill, Okla.

Nielson is 17, entered the Army in August, 1962, and completed his basic training at Fort Ord.
