

Frosting Adds Flair To Nut-Chip Cookies

Chocolate chip cookies take on a new look when raisins and nuts hide inside and a chocolate glaze frosts the cookie for festive occasions.

CHOCOLATE PARTY DIPS

Bake at 350 deg. for 10 to 12 minutes. Makes about 3 dozen cookies.

Sift together . . .
1 cup sifted flour
¼ teaspoon salt
¼ teaspoon soda

Melt . . .
½ cup semi-sweet chocolate morsels with
½ cup butter over hot water. Cool slightly.

Add . . .
½ cup powdered sugar and Blend in . . .
1 unbeaten egg.
Stir in . . . the dry ingredients
½ cup walnuts, chopped

½ cup raisins, whole or chopped, and
1½ cups plain or cocoa rice crispy cereal.

Drop . . . by teaspoonfuls onto greaser cookie sheets.

Bake . . . at 350 deg for 10 to 12 minutes. Cool.

Drop . . . cookies into glaze, covering completely. Lift out with fork, tapping against side of double boiler to remove excess chocolate.

Place . . . on a rack. Sprinkle with chopped walnuts. Let stand until chocolate hardens.

CHOCOLATE GLAZE

Melt 1½ cups semi-sweet chocolate morsels, ¼ cup light corn syrup and 2 tablespoons butter in top of double boiler over hot water. Remove from heat, keeping over hot water.

Youth Group Described To South Bay Alumnae

John H. Jones, district director of the Wilmington Neighborhood Youth Association, was guest speaker at the February meeting of the Palos Verdes South Bay Alumnae Club of Alpha Xi Delta Thursday evening at the home of Mrs. Billy Blanchard, 22033 Grant Ave., Torrance.

Mr. Jones gave a short history of the N.Y.A., described its present objectives, and told how the Alumnae group could provide help.

According to Jones, N.Y.A. was started 55 years ago as a settlement house in East Los Angeles. As the area became more industrialized and the needs more specialized, welfare department recommended they work in the Venice West Los Angeles area. Fourteen years ago they established their first clubhouse there, and three years ago, they established the Wilmington group, he stated.

Boys and girls of Junior High School age who have behavior problems and who have not yet reached the probation stage are referred to the N.Y.A. and invited to become a member of one of the groups, Jones pointed out. A group has eight or nine members and meets once a week for two and a half hours with a worker, he said. The time is spent mostly with discussions of their feelings and problems, but also includes some activity and refreshments, he indicated.

Every three months a group is permitted a special activity or trip, Jones stated. Currently, they are working with five boys' groups, and four girls' groups he related.

The average length of time that a group meets is two to two and a half years, according to Jones. After that the services are available but, not in organized groups, he said. The workers are available at any time for consultation, he pointed out.

After Mr. Jones' talk the regular business meeting was conducted by the president, Mrs. Thomas Black. Plans were discussed and committees named for a benefit bridge-luncheon to be held in May.

A report by the nominating committee was also given.

At the close of the meeting, refreshments were served by the hostess, Mrs. Blanchard, and co-hostess Mrs. Robert White.

Those attending were Mmes. Louis Bradvica, John Hill, Phillip Sayre, Thomas Black, H. N. Jensen, James Stovall, Robert White, Billy Blanchard, Ken Cunningham, Luther Beard, Charles Hall, and Russel Smith Jr.

Essay Winners Named by Dianias

Redondo Beach Dianias, CFWC junior membership, presented their yearly chairman's night program at the clubhouse recently.

The program was opened with Brownie Troop 812, sponsored by the Dianias, presenting the colors and leading the membership and guests in the pledge of allegiance.

A talk on the Redondo Beach Youth Canteen was given by Mrs. Robert Dreizler, recreation supervisor for the City of Redondo Beach. Mrs. Dreizler is Build A Better Community Chairman for the Diana Club.

A demonstration of mouth to mouth resuscitation by a member of Redondo Beach Fire Station No. 1, Fireman John McBride, preceded a question and answer period.

First, second, and third place winners of the Americanism Essay Contest sponsored by the Dianias, were announced. Essays were read by Wayne Knight, first place winner of a $25 bond; Roberta Chillington, second place winner and Margo Scotton, third place winner, all of Hillcrest Junior High School.

Following a demonstration of "Oragame," the Oriental Art of paper folding, by Diana member Betty Saunders, a children's art display was shown by Mrs. Kurt Richardson, vice president of the South Bay Art Association; and the film, "Project Hope," was viewed.

Chairmen who assisted in preparation of the program were Mmes. James McPherson, art chairman; Arthur Callen, crafts; Christ Saunders, needlework; Miss Sara Mitchell, Americanism; and Miss Jeannie Moody, youth.

The program was conducted by Mrs. D. J. Gleason, dean of chairmen.
