

Good News Casserole Provides Extra Bounty

Good News Casserole provides the homemaker with plenty of "extras." The dish is, for instance, extra economical and extra delicious. It is a savory combination of tuna in vegetable oil, peas, French-fried onions, and cream of mushroom soup. Ac'cent monosodium glutamate brings out all the delicate flavor of the tuna—and combines all the flavors of the ingredients into a harmonious whole.

The dish is perfect for company dinner too; combine the ingredients, pop the casserole into the oven, and chat with guests while this meal-is-a-dish bakes. Good News Casserole is sure to be a headliner or festive buffet suppers—and for family meals as well.

GOOD NEWS CASSEROLE
 1 can (10½ ounces) cream of mushroom soup
 1 can (1 pound) peas
 1 can (4 ounces) pimiento, diced
 1 teaspoon Ac'cent
 1 tablespoon Worcestershire sauce
 1 small onion, chopped
 2 cans (6½ or 7 ounces each) tuna in vegetable

oil
 1 cup (4 ounces) grated American cheese
 ½ can (3½ ounces) French fried onions
 Combine undiluted soup, peas with liquid, pimiento, onion, Ac'cent and Worcestershire sauce in 1½ quart casserole. Fold tuna and cheese into mixture in casserole. Arrange French fried onions around edge. Bake in a moderate oven (375 deg. F) 25 minutes. Yield: 6 servings.

Woman's Image to Be Discussed

Dr. Mary Hungerford, noted dancer, dancer educator and family relations counselor and teacher, will be guest speaker and discussion leader at a meeting of the Women's Alliance of the Pacific Unitarian Church to be held at 8 p.m. Friday at the home of Mrs. Fred Allen, 23 Eastfield Dr., Rolling Hills.

Topic of discussion will be the article "The Milk of Paradise" by Agnes de Mille from "The American Woman: The Changing Image."

A former student of Martha Graham in New York, Dr. Hungerford attended Bennington and Connecticut College. Following the meeting, which is open to the public, coffee will be served. Admission will be free.

Flavors Team Up in Crimson Punch Bowl

The informality of entertaining at an "open house" has made it one of the most popular of American customs. But because invitations are often given verbally and informally, it is difficult to judge the number of friends who may drop in. Therefore, the food served should be simple and easy to replenish.

Offer your guests colorful Crimson Punch Bowl. It combines the tartness of cranberries with orange juice and raspberry jelly accented with the distinctive lemon-line taste of sparkling 7-Up.

Serve with "help-yourself" snacks, such as assorted cheeses with crackers and your favorite dip with potato chips. Cookies and thin slices of fruit or pound cake can be included for those who like sweet snacks.

2 cups boiling water
 1 pint cranberry juice
 1 (6-ounce) can frozen orange juice
 6 (7-ounce) bottles of 7-Up
 2 trays ice cubes

Beat jelly until smooth. Gradually add boiling water and continue beating until jelly is dissolved. Stir in orange juice concentrate. Refrigerate jelly mixture along with cranberry juice and 7-Up.

At serving time, pour chilled jelly mixture into a punch bowl. Stir in cranberry juice. Slowly pour in chilled 7-Up. Add ice cubes. Makes about 25 servings.
