

DEPARTING TODAY for Santa Monica where they will attend the seventh annual convention of Marina District 18, California Federation of Women's Clubs, are (l-r) Mmes. H. G. Stephens, Joseph D. Bay, president; Godfrey Nelson, district legislative and literature chairman; and J. G. Louvier, corresponding secretary and president-elect, who will represent Torrance Woman's Club. The meeting will be held tomorrow and Friday at the Miramar Hotel.

PRESS photo

Los Cancioneros to Hold Spring Concert

Executive Board of Los Cancioneros met Friday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Walter M. Crum, Palos Verdes Estates, to plan for forthcoming appearances of the chorus and the annual spring concert.

Mrs. Reg B. Roberts, chairman of the group, announced that The Singers have accepted an invitation to perform at the annual "Recognition Night" for Volunteer Service at Harbor General Hospital Wednesday evening, May 5.

The dates of May 31 and June 1 have been selected for the Spring Concert, which will be given at the Redondo Beach Union High School Auditorium.

Mrs. Barbara Mabin, director of the chorus, discussed plans for the concert which will include the music of Vivaldi, Bruckner and Poulenc, and selections from "West Side Story."

Mrs. Mabin announced that arrangements are being made for the appearance of a well known folk song artist and guitarist who has agreed to perform with Los Cancioneros in a folk music segment of the concert.

Committee chairman for the concert are being appointed by Mrs. Roberts to be announced at a later date.

Other board members at-

Alpha Xi Deltas Honor Founders

Southern California Alliance members of Alpha Xi Delta celebrated the national sorority's 70th Founder's Day with a luncheon at Disneyland Hotel Saturday.

"Galaxy of Stars" was theme for the event, which honored prominent Alpha Xi Deltas, including Mmes. Richard Shellenberger, national vice president, and Dr. Nola Stark Cavette, dean of women at UCLA.

Mrs. Iverna Carter, superintendent of the California Institute for Women at Frontera, discussed work of the Alpha Xi Delta Foundation, which controls the sorority's philanthropies. She spoke on "The Prevention of Juvenile Delinquency."

Alpha Xi Delta Alliance President Mrs. Oscar Sayles of San Bernardino opened the program, and Mrs. Ray Bloker of Corona del Mar presented the Order of the Rose to 50-year members.

Mrs. John Dorr of Malibu, TV and radio lecturer, addressed the group during luncheon, speaking on

Marionettes to Perform

The Bob Baker Marionette Show will be presented under the auspices of Torrance Cooperative Nursery School, Sunday at 2 p.m. and 4 p.m. at Torrance Recreation Center, Madrona and Torrance Blvd. Admission will be $1 for adults and 75 cents for children. Ticket information may be obtained by calling FR 5-1032 or 371-1656.

Torrance Nursery School is a non-profit parent cooperative sponsored by the adult education division of Torrance Unified School System. Evening lectures for both parents, workshops for the maintenance of school equipment and exchange of ideas, plus a four-mornings-a-week nursery school program for pre-school children are featured in the program.

Directed by Mrs. Alvin Kaye, the school accepts children between three and five, and is in session Mondays through Thursdays, from 9 to 12. It is located at 4558 W. 182nd St., near Hawthorne Blvd. Mrs. Richard Jones, DA 5-1756, is membership chairman.

tending the meeting were the Mmes. D. D. Vance, Dennis E. Byersdorff, Robert P. Teutsch, Richard F. Collins, John C. Ryan, Miss Caroline Polhemus, Mr. Crum and Joseph D. Aubrey.

Delegates Selected

Torrance Woman's Club, Marina District 18, has named four delegates to the Seventh Annual District Convention to be held tomorrow and Friday at the Miramar Hotel in Santa Monica.

Theme for the convention is "Positive Action Through Vision and Faith" under the leadership of Mrs. Ervin W. Graf, president.

Delegates are: Mmes. J. P. Bay, president; J. G. Louvier, recording secretary and president-elect; John Warnock, first vice-president elect; and John Stephens, philanthropy director.

Others who plan to attend are: the Mmes. R. E. Foffitt, Marina Satellites presidents; Godfrey Nelson, district legislative and government chairman; John Thuss, district conservation chairman; L. G. Pulliam, R. L. Rudy and Roy Apsey.

Women

RONNIE SAUNDERS, Society Editor

☆

TELEPHONE DA 5-1515

Garden Tea to Be Held

Prospective members and the 64 new members who have joined Palos Verdes-Rolling Hills Branch, American Association of University Women, during 1962-63 will be honored at the group's annual membership tea on Sunday, May 5.

The tea will be held from 2 to 5 p.m., in a garden and poolside setting at the home of Mrs. Leonard J. Baker, 2212 Rock Point Place, Palos Verdes Estates.

Tea chairman is Mrs. George H. Keens. In charge of floral arrangements and display of art work by members is Mrs. Robert L. Wattenbarger, assisted by Miss Rhoda Johnston.

Executive board members in the receiving line with Mrs. Harold O. Simar, president, will be Mmes. Harding, H. C. McLendon, Joseph F. Goodwin, Dean C. Dunlavy, Raymond Oddone, James Heusdens and Douglas L. Stone.

Section chairmen and special chairmen who will alternate in pouring are Mmes. Wattenbarger, Robert S. Fraser, David Steybe, Irving C. Brown, Frank C. Fisher, Ralph M. Wood, Frances Scott, Joseph R. Rensch, Stuart G. Forbes, Joseph P. Jay and William J. Fleming.

Explaining AAUW to prospective members and checking their credentials will be Mmes. Edwin N. Bobrow, Edgar L. Armi, Fletcher Baughm and Charles A. Perkins.

The branch welcomes to membership all women college graduates of institutions accredited by AAUW. Offered to members is a study action program in all levels of education, the arts (including art history, books, ceramics, crafts, music appreciation, gallery trips, painting an weaving); legislation, social and economic issues and status of women.

Further information may be obtained from Mrs. Thomas Harding, membership chairman, at 377-5285.

JOLENE MAJOR
... To Wed in August

Jolene Major to Be August Bride

Mr. and Mrs. Frank R. Major of 18018 Doty Ave., Torrance have announced the engagement of their daughter, Jolene, to Ronald J. Veres.

The bridegroom-elect is the son of Mrs. Delmer Watkins of 2768 Onrado St., Torrance, and S. Frank Veres of Lawndale.

Miss Major is a graduate of North Torrance High School, class of 1960, and El Camino College, where she is presently employed.

A senior at the University of Oregon, the benedict-elect is a 1959 graduate of Torrance High School.

The couple will be married August 30 at the Wayfarer's Chapel.

Yard Goods To Be Discussed

The Tuesday evening group of the new Torrance sewing club will meet April 30 to choose a name for the club, and welcome its first guest expert, according to Mrs. Becky Schaeffer, club founder.

Mrs. Dorothy Lavoie, known to shoppers for her valuable assistance in the yardage department of Sears Del Amo, who has sold yardage for more than twenty years, and thus has acquired a knowledge of fabrics that is truly impressive, will be speaker, Mrs. Schaeffer stated.

She will bring samples of available materials and point out how to tell the difference in weaves of cotton and wool, introduce members to the best in new synthetics and illustrate the best uses for particular fabrics and interlinings.

In addition to being an authority of materials, Mrs. Lavoie is reputed to be a proficient seamstress. Mrs. Schaeffer pointed out.

Membership in the club is open both to beginners and experienced seamstresses. An afternoon group is in process of development for persons unable to attend evening groups.

Those interested in attending the Tuesday meeting to hear Mrs. Lavoie may do so by calling Mrs. Yates, hostess for the evening, FA 0-1458.

Persons desiring information about the club are asked to call Mrs. Schaeffer at FR 5-3187.

HAT BOX PARADE will be theme of tomorrow's Teen Mannequin fashion show tea at the Polynesian Restaurant. The event is set for 4 p.m. Pictured are (l-r) Susan Handy, Laura Converse and Coralie Haworth.

Coordinating the show is Jean Converse. Jeanne Barnhardt is director, and Joan Powers and Jackie Howarth are co-directors.

—PRESS photo

Teenagers to Model Tomorrow

Setting for Hat Box Parade, a benefit fashion show to be presented by Teen Mannequins at 4 p.m. tomorrow, will be the Polynesian Restaurant, Torrance. Proceeds will go to Korean orphans.

Director is Jeanne Barnhart, with Joan Powers and Jackie Howarth as co-directors and Jean Converse as coordinator.

Models will include: Laura Converse, Susan Handy, Coralie Haworth, Pam Ryan, Kim Hilk Kathy and Genie Bussey, Mellissa Bernhardt, Nancy Hogg, and Beth Hansen.

Featured in the program will be organ selections by Bill Keller and a specialty dance number by Ricardo O'Conner of the Germain Ballou Studios.

Teen styles will be shown by courtesy of Margie's Teen Togs and Maggi-ann Lingerie, both of Redondo Beach.

Donations is $1. Teen Mannequins is a social club comprised entirely of teen-agers working towards self-improvement through good grooming. Fashion shows are produced monthly to enable members to participate in charity projects. Membership has grown from 12 to 50.

It's Fiesta Time

Serra High School will present a three day fiesta April 26-28 at the school's campus 14830 Van Ness, Gardena. Booths, rides, and games will be offered. Sunday afternoon a ham dinner will be served from 1 to 7 p.m. Prices for the meal are adults $1.50, children under twelve 75 cents.