Women's Club Convention To Get Underway Monday

Theme of the 60th Annual Convention of the California Federation of Women's Clubs to be held in San Jose May 13 through 16, is "Positive Support of our Spiritual Values."

Mrs. Frederic W. Spencer of North Hollywood, will preside at the four day session.

Keynote speaker for the formal opening on Monday evening at 8 p.m. will be Dr. William H. D. Hornaday, Minister of Founders' Church of Religious Science, Los Angeles, California.

Dr. Hornaday has chosen for his subject, "Reverence for Life." His address will include highlights of his recent visit with Dr. Albert Schweitzer, in Lambarene, Republic of Gabon, Africa.

Highlight Tuesday will be the radio and television awards luncheon. After luncheon, Dr. Max Rafferty, California State Superintendent of Public Instructions and Director of Education, will speak on "Spotlight on Education."

At Tuesday afternoons' session the CFWC American exchange student will be presented. An award will be given by the Shell Oil Company and state chairmen will continue with reports and awards.

Mrs. Walter V. Magee, third-vice president of the General Federation of Women's Clubs and past-president of the Ohio Federation of Women's Clubs, will speak to members and guests on Tuesday evening. Her subject will be "Membership — Our Foundation." Awards for the "Pennies for Art" will also be presented.

Early morning risers will attend workshops on parliamentary law, amenities and membership on Tuesday and Wednesday mornings.

Highlights of Wednesday will be resolutions presented to the assembly. Proposed amendments to the CFWC bylaws will also be voted upon.

The twenty-six district presidents and state chairmen will give their reports at the Wednesday afternoon session, tying the administrative theme, "Positive Support of our Spiritual Values." Awards will be made by the state chairmen.

At the annual banquet on Wednesday evening in the Civic Auditorium, David W. Richmond, a noted tax attorney from Washington, D.C., will address his audience on "Proposed Tax Reform Revision of 1963 — Cure or Chaos."

Annual conservation awards will be made by the Richfield Oil Corporation, on Wednesday evening. Mrs. G. J. Nelson of Calipatria, now serving as treasurer of the General Federation of Women's Clubs, will address the delegates at this banquet. Mrs. Nelson served as CFWC president from 1957-

The Executive Board in February adopted a recommendation that a citation be presented to Father Peyton in recognition of his crusade for family prayer at the 1963 convention in San Jose. The board also voted the same recognition to Dr. Frances O. Kelsey, Director of Medical Research of the Federal Food and Drug Administration, for her outstanding contribution in keeping the drug thalidomide off the American market.

A free tour of the Santa Clara Valley has been arranged for the CFWC delegates. Tour passengers will meet in front of the San Jose Civic Auditorium at 10 a.m. on Monday, May 13. The Rosierucian Oriental Museum, Municipal Rose Garden, Mission Santa Clara, University of Santa Clara, Saisset Art Gallery, Stanford University and the intriguing Winchester Mystery House are some of the places of interest to be covered. A stop for a no-host luncheon at Rickey's Studio Inn on the peninsula is also planned.

Thursday morning session will be devoted to unfinished business, when the assembly meets for the final session at 9 a.m.
