

TORRANCE PICTORIAL

High Time for Girl Scouts

SWING YOUR partners, done in the good old-fashioned American square dance form, occupies Girl Scout Troop 348 in recent South Torrance area in-gathering.

ORGANIZING TRIO for this year's in-gathering, one of several held in different Torrance neighborhoods, reviews festive occasion. At left is chairman, Mrs. Jacqueline B. Priest, Nancy Weber, center, was mistress of ceremonies, representing Troop 1374.

Linda M. Priest, right, of Troop 2507, welcomed the guests. This picture was taken by Bob Akers, son of PRESS photographer Gordon Akers.

OPENING CEREMONIES of the in-gathering are led by Troop 1266. Mrs. Barbara Slaton is leader.

CHILE TODAY and hot tomale, say Troop 1138 members, as they dance and dress in the style of our friends from the Andes country of Chile.

AN IRISH REEL was chosen by Troop 1538 to represent the Emerald Isle. Dances and costumes of various countries provided the theme of the in-gathering.

COVER DESIGN for the in-gathering program, done by Virginia Roberts, of Troop 1325, exemplifies the world friendship motif of the in-gathering.

THESE HIGH STEPPERS could be Swiss misses — but don't be fooled. They are members of Troop 1423, as they show how people dance in the mountains of Switzerland.
