NAME A THEATER ... SEE FREE MOVIES

How would YOU like to name a theater?

Here's your chance to exercise your ingenuity, and also get to see free movies.

Operators of a new theater now being built in Rolling Hills Plaza want you, the public, to name their movie house, reportedly to be the largest of the new theaters being built in the area.

The new theater, with entrances on both Pacific Coast Highway and Crenshaw Boulevard, is east of Crenshaw, and is not to be confused with another theater being built west of Crenshaw.

The theater will run first-run pictures, will have 1.000 seats, extra large screen and the latest in equipment and construction, according to the operators.

The California Sterling Theaters organization, headed by Fred Danz and Matt Appleman, with Nat Levine as resident manager, says it wants everyone in the area to feel the theater belongs to him-and thus they solicit suggestions on the name.

Winner of the contest will get a year's pass to the theater. In case of tie, each winner will get a year's pass. All contestants will get one free pass. The contest is open to all Southwest county area residents.

The theater is expected to open about Sept. 15. The contest will close Wednesday, July 3. Suggested names should be mailed to Theater Name Contest, The Press, 3228 W. Sepulveda Blvd., Torrance.

Contestant's name and address should be included.
