

"WHO'S WHO" BUSINESS INDEX

HEEL AND TOE DANCING ACADEMY, at 1953½ W. Carson St., Torrance, owned by Noble E. Spees and Barbara Cullis, is one of the best-equipped dance studios in Southern California, and offers classroom or private lessons in all dances for all ages. Noble has performed in television and motion pictures. He has placed two local boys in movie and TV work. Miss Cullis worked on the New York stage, television and motion pictures and, at one time, was under contract to Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer. Dance instruction includes tap, ballet, acrobatic twist, waltz, round, and exhibition ballroom.

THE SEAL GLAZ CORP., 420½ E. Carson, has a very specialized line of sealed glass units such as the pastry cases and super market show cases. A soft rubber seal is incorporated into every unit, increasing the amount of abuse, shock, and mistreatment this type of unit is subjected to. The glass units are used to keep cold air in and hot air out such as large refrigerators. Owner and operator of Seal Glaz Jack McHaffie can be reached at TE 5-5860 or SP 5-6751 for questions and specifications of these very necessary glass units.

LARSON'S RANGE, an indoor 25-yard range at 20441 Earl St., is now open for all persons interested in firing pistols and small bore rifles. The range has 13 returning targets and furnishes spotter scopes. Weapons can be rented and instructions are available at Larson's Range. Owner Lyman E. Larson started the business in August of 1962. Hours at the range are 2 to 10 p.m. daily and 9 a.m. 'til 10 p.m. on Saturdays and Sundays. Phone 371-6022.
