Officiating at the double ring ceremony was Rev. James Lowen. For the occasion, which was attended by 250 guests, the church was decorated with a fan-shaped arrangement and two large baskets of white gladioli.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, was dressed in a gown of silk organza and lace featuring a sequin-and-pearl encrusted Sabrina neckline, long sleeves which terminated in points at the wrists, a long torso bodice, and a full skirt with cascading train. She carried a Bible bearing two white orchids and lily of the valley.

Miss Kimi Hanoka was maid of honor. She wore a pale green organza sheath with a matching petal overskirt and carried a bouquet of yellow roses. Lisa Schimmick, flower girl, was gowned in white nylon with a pale green sash.

Bridesmaids were the Misses Sue Lamb and Donna Starling. They were attired in costumes matching that of the maid of honor. For her daughter's wedding Mrs. Bender selected a pale yellow ensemble with matching accessories. The mother of the bridegroom chose a turquoise floral silk sheath with white accessories.

Nori Hanoka was best man. Ushers were: Robert Walker, Douglas Friend, Kenneth Smuland and Winston Churchill.

"Because" and "The Lord's Prayer" were sung by Miss Noni Johnson, accompanied by Mrs. Robert Schimmick, organist.

Following the ceremony, a reception took place at the church reception hall. Miss Florence Aldrich presided at the guest book.

The couple are spending their honeymoon in Carmel. They will be at home in Torrance after July 15.
