

El Camino College to Present Its Summer Concert July 30

Culminating six weeks' work, the El Camino College Summer Chorus and Brass Choir will present a summer concert in the Campus Theater July 30 at 8:30 p.m. Free to the public, the concert will be under the direction of Crist L. Mikkelson and Calvin Greer, with Miss Loretta Nicasio accompanying.

Selections to fit many tastes in music will range from Verdi and Mendelssohn to Lerner and Loewe to Gilbert and Sullivan, Mikkelson, choral director, announced.

Opening the evening's program will be a medley of highlights from "The Mikado," one of the best-known of Gilbert and Sullivan's light operas. Solo performances will be given by Stephen Rhoades, Torrance; James Ross and Darrell Gilman. Connie Gilman, Judy Gorwick, and Kathy Brosh, Torrance, will perform as a trio in the light selection, "Three Little Maids from School." Operatic Works Turning to operatic selections, the chorus will present the Prayer from "Hansel and Gretel" by Humperdinck, the opening chorus from "Cavalleria Rusticana" by Mascagni, and the Pilgrims' Chorus from "Tannhauser" by Wagner. Yetta Benson will be featured in the solo selection "Voi lo sapete" in the Mascagni work. Popular selections from Lerner and Loewe's "My Fair Lady" will include "Lovely," with a solo by Luanne Duim; "On the Street Where you Live," "With a Little Bit of Luck," "Get me to the Church on

Time," with solo by Tony Farzley; "I've Grown Accustomed to Her Face," and "I Could Have Danced All Night." Directed by Greer, the Brass Choir will present the Galbas March from "Quo Vadis" by Rosza, the Triumphant March from "Aida" by Verdi, Be Not Afraid from

"Elijah" by Mendelssohn and Shangri-La by Maxwell. Closing selections of the program will be MacGimsey's "Shadrack," "Oh, Susanna," by Foster, arrangement by Noble Cain, and "Songs for America." Combined Effort Included in the final presentation will be "America" from the Symphony, America, by Ernest Bloch, "A Cantic of Peace" by Clokey and "Battle Hymn of the Republic," arranged by Ringwald. The latter number will feature the combined Summer Chorus, the Brass Choir and baritone soloist, Steve Winer. Ron Hibble, Ruth Hoopes,

JAMES P. GLENNY

James P. Glenny Wins Lieutenant's Bars in USAF

James P. Glenny has been commissioned a second lieutenant in the United States Air Force upon graduation from Officer Training School.

Lieutenant Glenny was selected for the training course through competitive examinations with other college graduates. He is being reassigned to Chanute AFB, Ill., for training as an aircraft maintenance officer.

The lieutenant, son of Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Glenny of 1754 Martina Ave., holds B.S. and M.S. degrees in education and attended the University of Idaho and the University of Southern California.

Torrance Airman Reassigned

Three Torrance reserve officers at Sunnyvale USAF School are receiving their annual 15-day active duty training in signal and civil affairs at the U.S. Army Electronic Proving Ground, Fort Huachuca, Ariz.

They are Lt. Col. James B. Harris, 5116 Milne Drive; Lt. Col. Raymond E. Collins, 3101 W. Carson St., and Lt. Raymond R. Zazulak, 2517 Ridgeland Drive.

The Sunnyvale School, commanded by Col. P. M. Bliss, is responsible for the administration and conduct of the signal and civil affairs training for the entire Sixth Army area. The eight-hour-per-day instruction familiarizes the students with the latest equipment, activities and functions of their branches.

Billy D. Mullins Is Instructor in Anti-Aircraft

Marine Private First Class Billy D. Mullins, son of Mr. and Mrs. Daymond Mullins of 1436 Plaza del Amo, is serving as instructor with Battery "D," First Light Anti-Aircraft Missile Battalion on San Nicholas Island, 60 miles off the Southern California coast.

Battery "D" is comprised of Marine Reservists called to two weeks of active duty for training, and is now engaged in a live-firing exercise with the "Homing All the Way Killer" (HAWK) missile. HAWK missiles counter low-flying, high-performance enemy aircraft.

Instructors normally are assigned to regular duties with HAWK missile batteries at Twentynine Palms, the "World's Largest Marine Corps Base."

This training program ensures the high degree of preparedness required of the Marine Corps in fulfilling its role as the nation's "Force-in-Preparedness."
