PTA News

North PTA
Mrs. William Cassida, president of North High PTA, announces that special efforts are being made this year to encourage parents and teachers to work more closely with the PTA for the welfare of all students. This unit will return to the former practice of having six association meetings, to be held on the third Wednesday of the months of October, November, December, February, March and May. The business portion of each meeting will be brief, and the program will feature some item of interest and information to parents.

At a recent meeting of the budget and finance committee, a tentative budget was compiled, to be presented for adoption at the October association meeting. Those attending were: Mmes. Maury Bruner, chairman; William Cassida; Al Cadenhead; Sally Yancy; Robert Brigham; James Carlson; and, Dr. R. D. Guengerich, school principal.

September 10 has been selected as the date for the teachers' "Welcome Back" luncheon.

Columbia PTA
The program committee of Columbia PTA held a luncheon meeting at Columbia School on June 27. The theme chosen for the year is "The Bridge Between Home and School," and the program outlined promises to be informative, interest-

Sgt. E. H. Bonnell in Nike Course

Army Staff Sergeant Emanuel H. Bonnell, whose wife, Taeko, lives at 22242 Marbella Ave., is attending an 11-month Nike missile universal fire control system maintenance course at The Air Defense Center, Ft. Bliss, Tex. The course is scheduled to end May 19, 1964.

Sgt. Bonnell entered the Army in January, 1948, and was last stationed at Fort MacArthur.

ing, and delightful.

Committee members are Mrs. A. Golds, chairman, Mrs. Joseph Kettering, Mrs. Jack Spurlock, Mrs. Paul Snyder, Mrs. Dean Thurman, Mrs. Roy Forehand, Mrs. Wilbert Taubenheim and Lester Forster.

On July 9 the budget and finance committee met at Columbia School and drafted the budget for the ensuing year. The annual dinner in October, which has been so successful and enjoyable, will be repeated this year as the main fund raiser, and all families and friends of Columbia are cordially invited to attend. Time and place will be announced later.

The committee: Mrs. Harry Raech, junior chairman; Mrs. Joseph Kettering, Mrs. Jack Spurlock, Mrs. Dean Thurman, Mrs. George Barnes, and Lester Foster.
