FRANK TALK

by Marion Frank

Starting off with an apology to Tom Chevoor, general manager of the Mariner, for not running Jack (Maverick) Kelly's picture in Wednesday's paper... this is what happens when one goes away... Anyhow it is in the page today! Just one of those things that happened while I spent a couple of days in the V. A. Hospital in Long Beach this week. Fact is, I'm out on pass.

Seems it all started with a routine check, but I'm getting the full treatment... My only worry now is that the verdict will be I'm allergic to newspapers!

Since I didn't get around much this week, most of the show-biz reports are of amateur status. For instance, the El Camino Players, under the direction of Burnett Ferguson, is presenting the "Wizard of Oz," an annual summer production for children. It began Thursday and runs Friday and Saturday evenings at 7:30. Two additional matinees will be given Saturday, however, at 10:30 a.m. and 2:30 p.m. in the Campus Theater.

Leading roles in the production are Naomi Moore, Allan McCollum and Jane Cobabe, all of Redondo Beach, Vic Barrera of Inglewood and Terry Klein of Torrance.

The reverse of "I wished I'd said that" heard much too much, "Like wow!" "My favorite people," "Thanks a million," "I couldn't care less," "Don't do anything I wouldn't do," "I dig," "I like it, I like it," "Who needs it?" "Cool it," "You can say that again," "Get lost," "Who writes your material?" "All righty," "Anyhoo," "Okeydoke," "Posolutely," "and last but not least," "Bye bye," for goodbye on the phone. Maybe I am just a rectangle?

For someone who never cared for chicken, I must confess that Chef John Bardenius at the Hot 'N Tot makes broasted chicken very delectable... a good place to take the family... There are two locations now—on Crenshaw at Artesia in Torrance and Pacific Coast Hwy. in Lomita.

And, for a pleasant change Vito's Spaghetti House on Sepulveda in Torrance does a superb job with Italian foods... carry-out service, too!

For enjoyable entertainment, visit the Marineland Restaurant to hear an excellent song, stylist, January Jones in the "Porpoise Room"... enjoy dinner in the picturesque dining room... on the ocean between Redondo Beach and San Pedro.

For those of you who like to go "way out," Oliver Berthoud announces a Polynesian Tour to Hawaii! It is sponsored by the Polynesian Restaurant... eleven wonderful days: Sept. 23 thru Oct. 3.

The Hawaiian Holiday includes a round trip jet airfare via United Airlines, deluxe hotel accommodations at Hawaiian Village and a host of enjoyable features, including a pre-flight Polynesian party at the restaurant... Stop in for a brochure and complete itinerary... It is reasonable. Better hurry, though, because reservations and deposit must be made prior to Aug. 1, 1963.

For information concerning these pages on Wednesdays and Fridays please contact Marion Frank at DA 5-1515. Deadline for Wednesday paper is Monday noon, Friday's paper, Thursday noon.
