

SHE'S A WINNER—Claudia Minton will compete in the "Miss Golden State" contest Aug. 24 at 7 p.m. at the Sports Arena under sponsorship of Fredericks Realty, Gardena. We don't know who else is in the contest or if Claudia will take the top trophy, but we'll venture we won't be contradicted if we give her our own vote. She looks like a winner all the way.

Chamber Names Co-Chairmen of Membership Unit

Appointment of Mrs. Jean Clawson, Edward J. Gregory and William Moss, Jr., as co-chairmen of the Torrance Chamber of Commerce monthly membership meeting committee was announced today by George W. Post, Chamber president. The committee, responsible for planning and presenting programs to the membership at the monthly breakfast meetings, plans to provide Torrance business and professional men and women with a number of highly interesting guest speakers. First meeting of the 1963-64 series will be held Tuesday, Sept. 24, at the International House of Pancakes, Hawthorne Blvd. at Carson St. Meetings are not held in July, August and December.

Senior Citizens Auditions Set For Tomorrow

Deadline for local senior citizens wishing to audition for special entertainment programs scheduled on Senior Citizens Days at the Los Angeles County Fair is Thursday, announces Warren M. Dorn, chairman of the board of supervisors. Applications should be mailed to the county department of parks and recreation, Senior Citizens Unit, 155 W. Washington Blvd., Los Angeles 15.

Lomita Veteran Leads Flag Salute

A World War I army sergeant, Harold Van Wie, led the pledge of allegiance which opened a recent meeting of the board of supervisors. A chaplain of Lomita Post 1622, Veterans of Foreign Wars, Van Wie also served two terms as commander of the Lomita Post as well as commander of Torrance Barracks. Senior citizens who apply will be notified of auditions scheduled closest to their homes. Non-professional singers, dancers, musicians and specialty acts are eligible. For additional information senior citizens should call LaRue Hilliker or Walt Lepisto, RI 9-6911, extension 552.

JOHN A TESKE GETS KEY POST AT AIRESEARCH

Appointment of John A. Teske as assistant manager in charge of Garrett-AiResearch's Torrance facility has been announced by James V. Crawford, vice president and manager. Teske will manage more than 2,000 personnel now employed in the Torrance facility. Major product lines include flight and electronic systems and electromechanical systems. Other major activities there include steel and aluminum precision casting and a new space environmental laboratory. Teske joined AiResearch in 1955 and has served as project manager for the company's central air data computing systems on the A3J, F4B, F4C and F-104 aircraft and was named chief of flight and electronic systems in 1959. For the past three years Teske has been assistant chief engineer of the Los Angeles aerospace firm.

$4,200 Street Funds Allocated to Lomita

Supervisor Burton W. Chase today announced allocation by the board of supervisors of $4,200 for two street projects in the Lomita area. Included in the program, Chase said, will be Eshelman Avenue near Monita Boulevard, scheduled for new concrete paving and resurfacing of an additional portion of existing roadway. The second project provides for new paving and general improvement of portions of Walnut Street in vicinity of Lomita Boulevard and 253rd Street. Both projects will be scheduled as soon as road department work program permit, the supervisor announced.

so much is possible with Security Bank as your financial partner

"Want to receive bouquets? Open your own checking account!"

"See these flowers? They're from my husband—for paying all the monthly bills on time. Your husband—like mine—will surely appreciate it when you manage your money efficiently—by check. With your own checking account, you can pay your bills and keep family records automatically. Cancelled, your Security Bank checks become legal proof of payment. And a separate, second account makes it so easy to keep things straight. Stop in at your nearby Security Bank. Tomorrow?"
