

HENRY MANCINI, composer-conductor of musical movie and tv fame, joins with the popular KINGSTON TRIO beginning at the Greek Theater Monday, September 9. Seven performances through and including Sunday, September 15 will highlight music from Mr. Mancini's many award winning scores and albums, as well as themes closely associated with the Trio's general and unique styling. The Greek Theater Orchestra under Mr. Mancini's baton will round out the musical production.

Telephone Man to Speak at Event

Mr. Phillip Lisman, program chairman for the Torrance Civitan Club, will present a program entitled "More Words-Less Wires." Mr. James E. Kessinger of the Pacific Telephone Company, will answer the question, "What's Happening to Telephone Conversations?" at the dinner meeting to be held Sept. 4 at the Jump 'n Jack Restaurant.

Kessinger will show how the Bell System has been able to make fewer and fewer lines transmit more and more telephone conversations.

Looking to the future, Kessinger will demonstrate working models of an optical maser and a Telstar Satellite to show how these two wire-less devices will be able to carry millions of simultaneous conversations to all parts of the world.
