

Recalling days as counselors at the Easter Seals camp for Handicapped Children are Norma Martin and Alejandro Canton, two El Camino College foreign students.

Boy, Girl Help People of Their 'Adopted' Country

"We rode a 'dog' to get there."

This is how Dennis Kamita, one of three EC College students to make a trip to Easter Seal Camp for Handicapped Children by Greyhound bus, describes the beginning of ten weeks as counselors at the camp.

Kamita, with Norma Martin and Alejandro Canton, have done something that separates them from other conscientious.

They sacrificed summer freedom to help the people of their "adopted" country.

Miss Martin and Canton came to the United States from Honduras and Panama, respectively. Kamita comes from the state of Hawaii.

"We were on the go from seven in the morning until ten at night without stopping," Canton stated. "Some of the kids and adults were so handicapped we had to do everything for them."

Located outside San Jose, the Easter Seals Camp held five two-week sessions. They were split into two sessions for children and one each for teenagers, adults and a mixed session of children and teenagers.

Activities and entertainment were planned and handled by the counselors themselves. During the day they centered around such things as swimming, archery and drama.

"Entertainment at night was hard, since there were people of different age groups at each session," Kamita commented.

One night the counselors staged an "evening in Paris." Canton performed a French Apache dance, which derived its name from a Parisian criminal gang.

"More like a belly dance!" Kamita quipped.

Another evening entertainment centered around a fire dance with flaming batons, also performed by Canton.

"Everyone stood around with buckets of water and hoses," Canton and Kamita both chimed in.

Miss Martin enjoys recalling the night counselors staged a circus. "We were

Luau Plans Being Set

Members of the South Bay Democratic Society are busy planning a luau for Saturday evening, Sept. 21, at the home of Mrs. William Edwards, 21925 South Harvard Ave., Torrance. There will be Hawaiian entertainment, exotic food, and a good time is planned for all.

"the animals!" she said in distressed tones.

All three agree that the enthusiasm and initiative shown by everyone at the camp made it all the more enjoyable and a profitable learning experience.

Psychology Class Offered at Night

A night course in psychology will be offered in Torrance by the University of Southern California this fall.

"Survey of Clinical Psychology," a three-unit course will meet on Thursdays 7 to 10 p.m. beginning Sept. 26 in the conference room, Education Materials Bldg., 2335 Plaza del Amo. The class will be taught by Dr. Frank Risch.

Registration and payment of tuition will take place at the first class meeting. Textbooks, if needed, will be sold at that time.

World War II, Korean and California veterans may enroll upon presentation of proper credentials. California State veterans must present or have on file an authorization certificate issued for the Fall Semester, 1963.

Further information may be obtained by calling USC's Community Service Division at Fichmand 8-2311, Ext. 216 or 246.

Annual NROTC Examination Applications Now Available

Applications are now available for the Navy's eighteenth annual NROTC qualification test, according to Miss Marianne Millard, counselor at West High School. The nationwide examination will be given Dec. 14, and all eligible male high school seniors and graduates may apply.

On the basis of this test, personal interviews, physical examinations, and other factors, Miss Millard explained, over 2000 young men will be given college education as midshipmen in NROTC units in 52 well-known colleges and universities throughout the country.

Registrations for the test close Nov. 22. Informational bulletins and applications are available from Miss Millard or the nearest U.S. Navy Recruiting Station.

A successful applicant receives financial aid for four years of college. This includes tuition, books, uniforms, miscellaneous expenses, and a $50 per month retainer fee. After successfully completing college degree requirements and naval science training, NROTC midshipmen become commissioned officers in the U.S. Navy or Marine Corps.

During their training, Regular NROTC midshipmen enjoy three summer cruises with various naval units, including visits to foreign ports. These cruises help them to learn more about the variety of interesting and challenging opportunities available to them as naval officers.

Male citizens of the United States who will be over 17 but not yet 21 on June 30, 1964, and who are now high school seniors or graduates, are eligible to apply for the Dec. 14, NROTC qualifying test. Those who attain qualifying scores will be interviewed and given physical examinations next Feb.
