Little Caesar Will Be Three Three Days Next Week

Little Caesar (13945 Van and honor that such a busi-Ness, Gardena) will be three ness venture deserves. years old next week and Handsome and virile Jerhost Jack Rosen is staging ry Antes will sing.

Talented and tuneful Dave a three-day birthday celebration to commemorate the sing.

occasion with all the dignity

Do Ladies ike Mink

Articulate Dave also will speak softly to the people choosing and phrasing the words from his extensive vocabulary of the English language as carefully as he phrases his music.

20 of the 36

Probably someone will

Next Monday, there is an For Dave and Tiny, the interesting club for ladies partners from Pacoima, it commencing out at the Observe a memorable occasion for they have enter-Olympic Ice Arena on West- tained the customers 20 of tern Ave., south of Torrance. 36 months of the life of Lit-The number is 23770 S. tle Caesar. Western Ave.

· Little Caesar's first year Manager Mike Thornton will be celebrated Tuesday, calls it the "Mink Stole Oct. 1. Club. The second year will be

The ladies who join will observed Wednesday, Oct. 2. receive each Monday a halfhour lesson in skating, plus marked Thursday, Oct. 3. lunch at the Silver Skates, and free child care until two comed in the afternoon. Price is $2.45, plus normal admission. Mike's phone number is 325- to feel at home. 4474 for those who want to ed to one and all.

ioin. The club runs 16 weeks. Members pay first and last club dues on first day, then pay single dues each Monday they attend.

Those members who attend ten of the 16 club sessions will be eligible to win a beautiful mink stole.

The stole is free. The ice smooth. And, it's cool.

4:06 P.

TOMMY CARLOUGH At the Sands

South Coasting . . .

Tommy and the Sands Have a Lot in Common

By L. CUTLER WAYNE

It may seem a bit far-fetched to attribute human qualities to a place of business such as the Sands Lounge, 4721 West Torrance Blvd., but not when it is done in terms of the personalities of the people who operate and staff it.

And the people who run "He is a great guy. He has and staff the Sands have integrity."

made it a warm and friend- And it was apparent that Herb Allen returns to Tomly place. A place where Tommy my an equal respect and af-Carlough, a warm and fection.

friendly man who plays pi- And so do the people who ano and sings with a warm respond.

and friendly voice, feels at "You see," said Tommy, 'that's what I try to do, to home. As a matter of fact, the reach people. When they Sands and Tommy Carlough respond, that makes me feel have a lot in common. good because then I know They have been together I'm achieving what I'm try-for 20 months, almost since ing to do." Just what is it that Tomthe Sands was born. They have grown up to- my is trying to do?

'I try to tell a story mugether. They have a lot of respect sically to tell a story muvey emotion. for each other.

And a lot of affection, too. Once Upon a Time Growing Up

As Tommy plays and sings "I started here," said Tom- in his warm, and friendly my last Wednesday night, voice, the faces of the danc-"when the room was new. ing couple, of the people I've seen it grow. I've seen sitting around the piano bar it build." and in the booths, seem to

And as he talks about say that they do understand himself, Tommy gives the what he is trying to do. impression that the Sands It came to pass because has seen him grow, too, in Tommy Carlough once upon maturity and in confidence. a time was a little boy who For instance, Tommy says wanted to sing and grew inthat his next immediate goal to a big boy who formed a is to make some records, musical group in junior high something that he has never school at Los Angeles, where done. he was born.

"For a long time," he It came to pass because said, "I knew I wasn't rea- Tommy Carlough at the age dy. Now, my voice has ma- of 17 went on the road as a tured and I've a strong feel- professional musician.

ing within me that I'm as "No one bothered about ready as I'll ever be." my age," he said, "because When Tommy speaks of I guess they didn't realize himself, there is no trace of just how young I was. I've self-consciousness or brag-been six feet tall since I gadocio. He is quite objec-tive about the whole thing. It probably seemed to

A clue to what part the Tommy that he was going a Sands and the people who long ways from Los Angeles gather there to hear Tommy and a place called Torrance have played in building and when he formed a trio and developing his maturity and began a tour of the United confidence creeps out as he States which was to last talks.

three years. They Respond But he wasn't.

He paused to wave a large You see, the trio died in hand and to call out, "Im Alaska and a single was here, Herb," to host Herb born.

Allen. Tommy Carlough, the sin-"I could work for him for- gle, came to the Sands. ever," said Tommy simply. And now they are two.

these hot days at the Tower Drive-in at 17420 South Western Ave., in the coffee shop. The coffee shop pours coffee 24 hours a day, seven days a week, but not only by Lorne. Others work there, too. Car service is offered each day from 11 a.m. until 3 a.m. The dining room is open from noon to 9 p.m. each day in the week except Monday. The Tower serves cold drinks these hot days, too. PRESS Photo by Red Lockwood

Dining Out's an Adventure for the Whole Family

In the United States, and Coast area to serve them especially in California cities well.

such as Torrance, a quiet re- We will try to keep our volution has been taking readers of this page informplace in the living habits of ed about those places in our area and the fine people who

Only a comparatively few operate them and whose cayears ago, "eating out" was reers are devoted to serving a rare and seldom-indulged people well.

luxury for an American fam- October of 1963 as National ily. Mother bore the brunt of Restaurant Month. the burden of feeding hun-

An Adventure For those who still rarely

THE PRESS_B-3

ner VARA GRUBE, at left, chats with Pat Pugh, an art student of UCLA, who showed her drawings and prints in a one-day exhibit at La Casa Galerie, which is located at 408 Via Monte D'Oro, Hollywood Riviera. Mrs. Grube is an artist and teacher whose studio and home are at the gallery. One of the fine restaurants in the Torrance area, the Wayfarer Restaurant (2230 Pacific Coast Hwy.) exhibits work of local artists in -PRESS Photo RUTH GILLIS Direct from PLAYBOY Chicago WILL DINE WELL MAURY DELL AT MY TRIO TABLE' day after day without respite.

our people.

enjoy eating out, now is a Perhaps one reason why good time to think about emthe family did not sally barking on a family advenforth for the adventure of ture - dining out.

being waited upon and the delightful carefree feeling of being able to arise and to walk away from the table without picking up soiled dishes and "doing" them later was because there were so pitifully few attractive places to go.

All that has changed. Often and Well

Today a family can dine out often and reasonably and extremely well.

The Torrance area abounds with dining out establishments with a wide and a varied selection of menus from which to choose either a snack or a full-course din-

All the choice foods of the world are available at reasonable cost and minimum of travel.

Going out to eat together is one of the few pleasures that each member of a family from the smallest child to the eldest adult can enjoy together.

To dramatize those facts and to encourage families to take advantage of the opportunity to go out and yet be together, the National Restaurant Assn. has designated Those who do won't regret

They will find lots of excellent establishments here in Torrance and the South

Pizza brings all the spice and zest of Sunny Italy to the palate, but it seems by looking around at the modern scene that pizza is fast becoming as American as--well, as American as ragtime.

You know, the ragtime that you hear on a player piano.

And Shakey's got both pizza and a player piano-at 5105 Torrance Blvd.

E E R E