

Women

RONNIE SAUNDERS, Society Editor

SHIP SHAPE attire keynotes the mood that will prevail at the Flavian PTA carnival set for Saturday. Theme is Fall Regatta. Highlights will include live shows by television performer Tom Hatten, dancing to the music of the Playboy Combo in the cafeteria, and a

P.X. which will feature Ken and Barbie clothes for early Christmas shoppers. Pictured are, from left, Linda Thomas, Sharene Cairns, Irene Jolley, Janis Hightberts and Holly Febles.

—PRESS photo

EXPLAINING TRAINING available at Banning Jr. High School to PTA members at a recent unit meeting was Miss N. I. Chapman, far left, counselor. Also pictured, from left, are: Mmes. I. M. Papadakis, Henry Flores, PTA president, and Paul Bennett, principal.

Rabbi Unger to Address Hadassah

Rabbi Jerome A. Unger, newly installed spiritual leader of Temple Menorah, will be guest speaker at Tuesday's Hadassah meeting.

Rabbi Unger, recently returned from a three year stay in Israel, has chosen as his topic, "Recollections of Israel in Retrospect."

Hadassah women who support hospitals, child care centers, trade schools, and mental health programs in Israel as one of their major functions, will have an opportunity to ask questions and discuss Israel with Rabbi Unger, during a question period is planned after the address. Hostesses will be Mrs. N. Horn and Mrs. H. Gerwer of San Pedro.

Hadassah of the South Bay meets the first Tuesday of each month at the American Savings and Loan Company's Community Room, 1959 Kingsdale, across from the South Bay Shopping Center.

Meetings start at 12:30 and are followed by a social hour at which coffee and cake are served.

Mrs. Nan Satton, membership chairman, FA 0-2952, was recently awarded a pin and a trip to Palm Springs for enrolling a record number of new members. Hadassah membership is open all year. Interested persons are asked to visit the chapter or contact Mrs. Satton.

CYO Yule Workshop Set for Tomorrow

Ideas for Advent, Christmas and Epiphany will be presented at second annual Christmas Holiday Workshop of Catholic Youth Organization from 12:30 to 4 p.m., tomorrow on the second floor of the Catholic Charities Center, 1400 W. Ninth St.

While the workshop is primarily for CYO leaders, advisors, officers and chairmen, all interested persons are invited to attend, according to Sister Celine Vasquez, S.S.S., CYO division director. Demonstrations will be given in making holiday food, puppets, hand-made cards and decorations. There'll be displays of books on holiday ideas and selections of recorded music.

Further information can be secured by calling DUnkirk 5-7211, Ext. 284.

GOLD RUSH DAZE

The California gold mining era will be recreated tomorrow evening at the Redondo Beach Town Hall when the Redondo Beach Dianas stage their "Gold Rush Daze Costume Party."

Mmes. Sheldon Goldensen and Anthony Credico are co-chairmen. Prizes will be awarded for the most original costume, humorous costume and best couple.

The Dianas are affiliated with the California Federation of Women's Clubs, Marina District, Junior Membership.

Organ Benefit Concert Set

Bill Irwin, nationally known organist, composer, arranger and teacher, will appear in a benefit performance at 8 p.m. Wednesday at Leuzinger High School Auditorium, 4118 Rosecrans, Hawthorne.

The concert, which will feature popular music and favorite standards, is presented with the cooperation of the El Camino Kiwanis and the Penny-Owsley Music Co. of Manhattan Beach.

Proceeds will go to the Southwest Association for Retarded Children.

Author of a dozen musical textbooks, Irwin will present a program which can be achieved on modern instruments.

Aims of the Southwest Association include the building of a recreation and activity center and a sheltered workshop to be used by the almost 200 children now being served.

Tickets for the concert may be purchased from the Penny-Owsley Co. in Manhattan Beach, from members of the Kiwanis or the Southwest Association, or at the door. Admission is $1.

PRESENTING CHECK on behalf of the Torrance Police Officers Association to the Torrance YWCA is Raymond Silage, left, vice president of the police group. Recipient is Mrs. Charles B. Mitchell, Y president.

—PRESS photo

Garden Club Presidents To Hold District Meet

Garden Club presidents in the Los Angeles Bay-Harbor District of California Garden Clubs, Inc., will meet at 10 a.m. Wednesday at the Mariner Motor Hotel, 2450 Pacific Coast Highway, Lomita.

A program has been arranged by Mrs. Robert Lusian, assistant director of the district to follow lunch.

Speaker will be Jesse Chapman, of Destruxol Corporation, who will discuss, "What Are Good and Bad Insecticides, and Their Uses."

District chairmen will be asked to give reports of their work. Mrs. Lawrence A. Winship, of San Francisco, first vice president of California Garden Clubs, Inc., will be present. Also attending will be Arboetum and Orange County District representatives.

Members of the District have been asked to bring plants to be distributed at a plant sale. A door prize will be given.

Mrs. William E. Robbins, district director, extends an invitation to all women interested in gardening to attend the meeting. Los Angeles Bay-Harbor District is affiliated with California Garden Clubs, Inc.

BALLET PARTY

Mrs. Mickey Myzel, YWCA dance director, will present the "Young Ladies of the Ballet" dancing at a "Ballet Party" given for parents, relatives and friends at 7 p.m. today at the Y.

The program will feature a Charleston song and dance, a Circle of Stars Ballet, and a novelty number entitled "Walking the Baby."

Refreshments will be served.

Costume Party Slated by Moose

Torrance Moose Lodge will be the scene of a belated Halloween dance party at 1744 West Carson St. at 9 p.m. Saturday. Members and their guests are encouraged to come in costume and to participate in costume contests.

There will be prizes for the winners in three different categories according to the announcement by Robert Fryer, dance chairman.

Categories for judging will be most original costume, prettiest costume, and funniest costume. Judges for the event will be selected from the group attending.

Featured event will be the ever-popular broom dance to be conducted by Fryer and committeemen Travers Schinke and Arthur Galinsky.

Music for the evening will be furnished by Vi and The Three Js.

Governor Joseph W. Marley extended a special invitation to all members of the Women Of The Moose to enter in the costume contests.

VISIT ICE CAPADES

Knolls Travelers Club, of Torrance, will meet at 7:30 p.m. Wednesday in the club house, at 23701 Western Ave. Plans will be made to charter a bus to Long Beach to see the 1964 "Ice Capades Show." Tickets are available on a first come, first served basis.

Refreshments will be served.

Delta Delta Delta, national fraternity for women, founded in Boston in 1888, will celebrate its 75th anniversary at a banquet Monday at 7 p.m. in the Viennese Room of the Huntington Sheraton Hotel, Pasadena.

Five members of the South Bay Alumnae chapter will join Tri Delta alumnae throughout Southern California and collegiate members of U.C.L.A., U.S.C., and Long Beach State College at the Founders Day celebration.

Mrs. Pierre J. Loutanoui, president of the Southern California Alumnae council of Delta Delta Delta, will be chairman for the affair.

The South Bay group will include: Mmes. Dale Drummond, chapter president, George L. Braham, Jack T. Lovrich, John Van Camp, and J. D. Jensen.

Delta Delta Delta now has 108 collegiate chapters and 313 alumnae chapters throughout the United States and Canada. More than 74,000 members have been initiated since the founding.

Education has been chosen as the major philanthropic field of the sorority. Since the establishment of the Service Project Scholarships in 1942, 3000 college women have received more than $400,000 as gifts from this fund. More than half of these grants have gone to unaffiliated women.

Southern California Tri Deltas also support research in Hematology at the Los Angeles Childrens Hospital.

Besides supporting these two large projects the South Bay Alumnae have bought items of equipment for the Harbor General Hospital Pediatrics Ward and they also give gifts each Christmas to the men and women in the wards for the aged.

Mrs. Edward N. Notestein, past national president of Delta Delta Delta, will be the speaker. Other Tri Deltas assisting with the program and arrangements are: Mmes. Charles Smith, associate Tri Delta director; Mrs. Charles A. Klinger, area financial assistant; Robert Baker, district president; William Dudley, district chairman; Miss F. Louise Newton, state recommendation chairman; Mmes. N. T. Mattax, Southern California Alumnae Council scholarship chairman; Charles Minogue, president, Pasadena Alumnae; Clarence H. Paulin, president, Los Angeles Alumnae; and Misses Judith Slipper, Sharon Wilson, Diana Corbett, presidents of the Collegiate chapters of U.C.L.A., U.S.C., and Long Beach State.

Scouting Around

CUB SCOUTS—PACK 951-C
The October Pack meeting of Cub Scouts 951-C, was held at the renshaw School auditorium, under the direction of Cubmaster John Simpson.

Institutional Representative Nelson Cullum, Jr., presented Den Mother, Mary Simpson, a 100% award for holding 60 consecutive den meetings without missing one.

The following awards were made to the cub scouts: Bobcat pin to Sam Martelaro; Wolf—silver arrow to David Smith and Curtis Hooker; Wolf Badge and gold arrow to Eddie Ketcham; Bear Badge to Billie Sipsis; Lion Badge to Harold Sayer; Lion Badge, one gold and one silver arrow to Nelson Cullum, III.

Harold Sayer and Nelson Cullum, III joined the Webelos Den. One year pins were given to Eugene Lizowski and Ballie Albert, Denner Stripe to Jack Simpson and Assistant Denner to Randy Chipman and Biff Hogar.

Cubmaster Simpson gave certificates of appreciation to parents who helped at the Torrance Ranchero Days. Receiving certificates were: Messrs. and Mmes.: Jake Bacca, Dennis Brooker, Nelson Cullum, George Dillard, Denzel Martindale, Jack Meltzer, Harry Mogar, John Simpson, Bob Tracy, Jack Underwood; Mmes. Vera Baldwin, Zula Beach, Louise Brown, Doris Burtle, Naome McKenna, Donna Ponder, and Lucille Pubs; and Francis Morrow, Al Bellucci, Ken Carr and Bill Everett.

BOY SCOUT TROOP 315
Boy Scout Troop 315, sponsored by Loyal Order Of Moose Torrance Lodge 785, was presented with a presidential unit award in ceremonies at the Scouting Center in Torrance Thursday, October 17, 1963. The award is given to units by President Robert Kennedy, honorary president of the Boy Scouts Of America.

According to information released by Robert Tilley, Troop 315 adult advisor committee chairman, scouting units are selected for the award by considering many of the accomplishments of the unit.

Requirements are community support services, assistance rendered the sponsoring institution, leadership qualities, troop scouting activities, and troop growth. Troop 315 was outstanding in all categories.

One of the most outstanding was growth during the past year.

Registered membership nearly doubled from less than 30 at the beginning of the year to 51 members at the closing date.

Scoutmaster Harry W. Thayer, leader of the award unit, was invited by Jesse Tapp, Los Angeles Council of Boy Scouts President and President of the Board of Directors of Bank of America, to be guest at a dinner given at Roger Young Auditorium October 16 to honor the working leaders of Award Units in the Los Angeles Area Council.

HOLIDAY DECORATIONS

The Southwest Little League Women's Auxiliary will meet at Anza School, 21400 Ellinwood Dr., at 8 p.m. Tuesday.

Mrs. Carol Denmark and her assistant Mrs. Jo Ann Graver of the Torrance Recreation Department, will demonstrate how to make Christmas decorations. Members and guests are invited.