Seventeen lovely co-eds will vie next week in competition to select a 1963 Homecoming queen at El Camino College.

Keeping a date with a panel of five judges Wednesday evening, the coeds, all of whom have completed a minimum of 25 college units, will dine with Homecoming committeemen and college officials prior to a series of individual interviews conducted in council chambers.

In the interviews, judges, headed by Mrs. Stuart E. Marsee, wife of the El Camino president, will gather information leading to the selection of a queen on the basis of poise, voice, general appearance, personality, academic qualification, and service to the college.

At the conclusion of the series of interviews, judges will assemble information and impressions before identifying the queen and her two princesses.

Primary function of the court will be to reign over campus Homecoming festivities on Nov. 23, when the El Camino College Warriors will meet Santa Monica City College at the finale of the 1963 football season in Murdock Stadium. The royal court will appear in the pregame parade at 7 p.m. and during half-time ceremonies.

Arrangements for festivities at which the twelfth court in ECC history will reign are being made by a committee headed by Miss Sandy Karnes, president of the Associated Women Students. Serving with Miss Karnes, a resident of Redondo Beach, are members of the AWS Board: Miss Sharon Powers, Torrance; Miss Pat Benson, Gardena; Miss Donna Derrick, Manhattan Beach; and Miss Penny Jones, Lawndale.

Larry Collins of Torrance, is general chairman of Homecoming.

Candidates seeking Homecoming Queen honors are the Misses Gay Aldworth, Hermosa Beach; Diana Buckland, Hermosa; Helen Garrabedian, Inglewood; Diane Foote, Torrance; Beverly Holte, Inglewood; Janet Kanda, Inglewood; Pauline Liebig, Gardena; Carol Lowe, Torrance; Karen McKim, Hermosa; Carole Ortale, Torrance; Cheryl Rucker, Hawthorne; Kathy Schwent, Torrance; Judy Silva, Inglewood; Sande
