Hootenanny To Raise Float Funds

Top flight folk singers will entertain at a hootenanny next Friday night in Torrance to raise funds for the community's float entry in the Tournament of Roses parade. It was announced today by Robert H. Vroman, Torrance Tournament of Roses Assn. chairman.

The folk singing fest, the largest ever to be held in the city, will take place at 8 p.m., Dec. 6, at the new Felker Manufacturing Co. building, 1900 Crenshaw Blvd., south of Carson St.

Among noted southland artists who will sing and play at the hootenanny will be Tim Morgon, Susan Renaker, The Brandy Hill Singers, Duncan Robertson and Ed Yaw.

Both Tim Morgon and Susan Renaker are currently appearing at the Prison of Socrates Coffee House in Balboa. The Brandy Hill Singers, and Duncan Robertson and Ed Yaw are well known performers in the

Men's League Forms at Lomita Park

A men's basketball league is now being formed at Lomita County Park. Anyone may enter a team in the league or register individually. For more information contact Herb Bonnet at Lomita Park, 24428 Eshelman Ave. or call DA 6-9949. There will be a meeting on Monday, Dec. 16, at 7:30 p.m. for all persons interested in the men's league. "Several teams are already entered, so hurry before the league is filled," Bonnet said.

Serra High's Class of '53 Plans Reunion on Dec. 7

The ten-year reunion of the graduating class of 1953 from Junipero Serra High School is to be held at the Thunderbird Hotel, El Segundo, on Saturday, Dec. 7. This is the first in a planned tradition of class reunions.

Heading the reunion committee are Class President Cecil Gray and Thomas Cassidy. Gray served for several years as a football coach at Serra after his graduation.

The social hour will start at 7:30 p.m. Dining and dancing to the music of Freddie Martin will follow.

This class boasts the school's first medical doctor. He is USAF Capt. Alan Hurdle and he is presently stationed at Merced, California.

Among the former faculty members who will attend are coaches Ernie Simons and Chuck Schoendiest and Bro. Elmer Dunsky, S.M. Also present will be Fr. Bertrand Clemens, head of the Marianist community at Serra, Bro. Richard Britton, S.M., the present principal and Bro. Jorge de Silva, the head of the guidance department at Serra and the Alumni Association Moderator.

Members of the class of 1953 may contact Bro. Jorge at the school if they have any questions concerning the reunion.

Carson C of C Meeting Set For Monday

Paul Schneider, president of the Carson Chamber of Commerce, announced this week that the chamber's regular meeting will be on December 9, at 8:00 p.m. at Carson High School, 22328 South Main St., Carson.

The Pacific Telephone Company has been invited to present a program on Telstar I.

DEMONSTRATION

Using a model of the satellite, Pacific Telephone's Al Ouellet will demonstrate space communications. Ouellet will illustrate how Telstar has been able to transmit television, and communications of all kinds, across the Atlantic. In his demonstration, the speaker will also touch on the use of microwaves — communication without wires — which has culminated in the Bell Systems Space Satellite Program.

ALL INVITED

President Schneider stated that all members of the chamber and residents of the community are invited to attend. A report from the Board of Directors of the chamber will be presented to the general membership.

HUMILITY

Self-knowledge, humility, and love are divine strength.

Explosion Sends Fumes Into Area

A flash fire and explosion at the Stauffer Chemical Company, 20720 S. Wilmington Ave., sent noxious fumes over a large area Monday night.

One chemical company employee received burns on his legs from the explosion and several sheriff's deputies were treated for inhaling the dangerous gas.

Marine Reservists

Marine Corps trucks will be stationed at various shopping centers and downtown Long Beach throughout the month of December to further facilitate the collection of toys. Fire stations will not be utilized as collection points this year.

Assistance in the above methods or any other information concerning this drive may be obtained by contacting the 3rd Air-Naval Gunfire Liaison Company, U. S. Marine Corps Reserve on Terminal Island or by phoning TE 2-0869.
