ALL DRESSED UP and ready to go. Gary, who is five, and his sister, Anne, who is three, became suddenly homeless when their mother took sick. The Homefinders seek substitute parents who can give children the temporary care on a paid basis. For information call the Homefinders at Terminal 2-8361.

Scouts Visit Vandenburg For Weekend Camporee

Boy Scout Troop 315, sponsored by Torrance Loy- al Order Of Moose Lodge 785, were recent guests of the Del Rio District of Mis- sion Council at a weekend Camporee at Vandenburg Air Force Base. The invita- tion was extended by Jay Spears, Del Rio District Commissioner to Harry Thayer, Troop 315 Scout- master. Thayer was Del Rio Commissioner until his transfer to Torrance. The Troop arrived at Van- denburg about midnight and camp officials were on hand to show them to their camp- site. The boys made camp with only the light of their flashlights. On Saturday morning, without altering their camp, they won first place in judging for camp- site preparation, layout, and cleanliness. Two nine boy patrols then entered the other competition events which were judged by pa- trols. The Cobra Patrol with David Rose as Patrol Lead- er placed first in the First Aid contest. The Flaming Arrow patrol with Tom Thayer Patrol Leader won second place on the personal fitness obstacle course. As a result of the Troop's outstanding showing, after the religious ceremonies on Sunday, Mr. Al Grodrian, council executive of Mission Council, bestowed an hono- rary troop membership in Del Rio Council upon Troop 315 and invited them to at- tend other council events in the future. The boys of the Troop arrived back in Tor- rance about 7 p.m. Sunday tired but pleased with their fine performance in the arts of Scouting.
