

JACKKNIFED trash truck rests on the edge of a field at the corner of Del Amo Blvd. and Hawthorne Blvd. following a near collision Thursday with a passenger car. Driver of the truck told police a vehicle made a sudden stop in front of him, forcing him to slam on the brakes and swerve to the right. The huge truck knocked down a traffic signal and could not be moved until signal repairmen could remove hot wires. —PRESS photo

Local Jaycees Welcome Eight New Members

The Torrance Junior Chamber of Commerce initiated four new members at a recent General Membership Meeting at the Palms Restaurant. Frank W. Boller, Sales Representative for Bailey, Green, and Elger, Inc. of New York; Bill J. Ladd, employed in manufacturing at Mattel Toys; Tomas F. Mooneyham, Plant Superintendent at Reynolds Metals Company; and Gilbert C. Peterson, newspaper printer.

Also Welcomed Also welcomed to the Jaycees were: Mr. Doug Pryor, associated with Palloys, Inc. in Torrance; Mr. Mick Bock, Salesman for United States Envelop Company; Mr. Alan Campbell, Head Custodian for Palos Verdes

School District; and Mr. Len Karn, Production Control Master Scheduled for Atomic International Corporation.

Active Group The Torrance Jaycees are an active group of young men between the ages of 21 and 36 who dedicate themselves to betterment of the individual through community development projects and leadership training activities.
