Manager Named For New Bank Branch in Area

Martin Moreau has been appointed manager of the new Hawthorne-Artesia Office of Crocker-Citizens National Bank, scheduled for opening on Jan. 10, it is announced by Roy A. Britt, vice chairman of the board.

Moreau joined Crocker-Citizens in 1956 after moving to California from Canada. Prior to his present appointment he served in various operational and administrative capacities, his most recent position being assistant manager of the bank's South Bay Office.

Active in civic and business affairs, Moreau is a member of the Redondo Beach Kiwanis Club. He resides in Palos Verdes Estates with his wife, Jeanne, and their four children.

Located at the southeast corner of Hawthorne and Artesia boulevards, the new Crocker-Citizens branch office will furnish all modern banking conveniences and services including a drive-up window, safe deposit boxes and an escrow department.

Now in its 94th year, Crocker-Citizens has 215 branch offices throughout California.

"The Young Americans" Appear on Peninsula

California Federal Savings says arrangements have been completed with the popular 36-voice choral group known as "The Young Americans" to make an appearance in the Peninsula Center on Tuesday, Jan. 7.

The group will present an hour-long program, from 8 to 9 p.m., in connection with the grand opening of California Federal's new three-story office building in the center. The entire second floor of the building will be used for the occasion and residents of the Peninsula are invited to attend free of charge, said Charles J. Piccard, manager of the new office. Directed by Milton Anderson, the "Young Americans" were formed in 1962 as a non-profit group, consisting of a total of 60 boys and girls who represent some 50 high schools and junior colleges in Southern California. The young people range in age from 15 through 20.

While the group has been organized for the express purpose of furthering understanding among peoples through youth and music, its foremost goal is to tour foreign countries as ambassadors of good will.

City Holds Track Meet for Girls

Out to prove that track isn't just a man's sport, more than 75 girls, ages 9-14, will take the field Saturday, Dec. 28, at Walteria Park to participate in individual and team tests of skill, sponsored by the Torrance Recreation Department.

Saturday's city-wide track and field meet climaxes nearly two months of training for many of the girls who attended November Track Clinics at McMaster and Walteria Parks.

Girls interested in participating in any of the field events Saturday need only a parent permission slip which may be obtained at any Torrance Recreation Department park or playground.

Four hours of field events, beginning at 10 a.m., include the 25, 50, and 75 yard dashes, obstacle course run, 100 yard pursuit relay, standing broad jump, jump and reach, baseball throw for distance, and basketball toss for accuracy.
