me to marry him on his own?—STILL PEPPY
Dear Peppy: A man of 63 is on his own. He has been frank with you, and now you ought to be frank with him. Tell him you no longer care to date just for the fun of it and since he is not interested in marriage he'd better find another "constant companion." If this doesn't produce orange blossoms give up already.

Dear Ann Landers: Byron and I have been arguing about something for weeks. We are both 22 although you probably will think we sound like 9-year-olds.

Whenever Byron and I go to a party or a dance, he disappears the minute we arrive and I'm on my own. One of the big problems is that Byron is a terrific dancer and I am just fair. He always hunts up the shimmy queen of the crowd and never checks to see what I am doing. Believe me, I like him to dance with other girls but when he doesn't dance even one number with me I feel like a fifth wheel. I've told him he is inconsiderate but he says I am childish and demanding.

What do you say? — STRANDED

Dear Stranded: This is a date? If you drove your own car you wouldn't need Byron at all.

Give him his hat and tell him to date the shimmy queens.

Do you lack self-confidence? If so, send for ANN LANDERS' Booklet, "How To Be Well-Liked," enclosing with your request 25 cents in coin and a long, self-addressed, stamped envelope. Ann Landers will be glad to help you with your problems. Send them to her in care of this newspaper, enclosing a stamped, self-addressed envelope. 1964, Publishers Newspaper Syndicate
