Law in Action

Some of life's misfortunes are hard to explain. The law calls them "acts of God." When injuries arise from one of them the law holds no one to blame. It is just one of those things.

People tend to attribute success to oneself and failure to fate. But in the law, if a person's fault combines with an "act of God" to bring on an injury, the courts are likely to hold that person liable for the result.

IN A RECENT case the Hardrock Cement Company dug much mineral
