

Handicapped Youngsters Go to Camp

Eight area teenagers will take part in the 1964 resident camping season of the Crippled Children's Society Aug. 24 through Sept. 5. Orthopedically handicapped boys and girls, aged 14 to 17 will attend Camp Paivika in the San Bernardino mountains, and cardiac-handicapped 12-18 years old, will attend Camp Joan Mier on the coast.

Attending Camp Paivika will be: Leroy Kashitani, 15, of 16401 S. Orchard Ave., Gardena Phillip Lee Brown, 15, of 813 W. 229th St.; Raymond Dean Martinussen, 14, of 542 Dolores St., Wilmington; and Donald Rey Stenberg, 14, of 23741 Ronan Ave., Wilmington.

Attending Camp Joan Mier will be: Janice C. Farland, 15, of 20429 Kenwood Ave.; Danny K. Morse, 11, of 134 E. 213th St.; Naomi Adame, 16, 1207 E. "M" St., Wilmington; and Linda Garcia, 12, of 322 Neptune Ave., Wilmington.

A camping program especially planned for children and teenagers with heart disorders is a recent development in the recreational field, and was instituted locally by the Society in 1960, when it opened Camp Joan Mier. First camp in the nation designed specifically for the heart-handicapped, its coastal site was chosen because of the beneficial sea-level altitude. Two full sessions a year are now devoted to them at Joan Mier, with the remaining three periods scheduled for those with orthopedic handicaps.

At both locations, campers enjoy swimming, archery, horseback riding and all the other traditional activities, with Easter Seal campaign contributions now providing more than 700 handicapped children and young adults with free two-week vacations during the ten-week season.

Chace Warns Local Vets On Insurance

Southland veterans are reminded by Supervisor Burton W. Chace that it is important to keep insurance policies up-to-date.

The Los Angeles County Veterans Service Office has noted an increasing number of cases in which G. I. life insurance proceeds are paid to persons other than the veteran's immediate family because the beneficiary listing is out-of-date.

Arthur H. Tryon, County service officer, said the law requires payment of insurance claims to the named beneficiary, whether or not that beneficiary is still in any way connected with the veteran.

The most common reasons for obsolete listings of beneficiaries include marriage, remarriage, divorce, and death. Such changes, Tryon said, cannot be made in a last will or testament. They must be filed by the policyholder directly with the VA to be valid under the law.

Dinner Set To Honor 3 Demo Leaders

A dinner honoring Sen. Pierre Salinger, Congressman Cecil King, and assemblymen Vincent Thomas and Clayton Dills is planned by the 17th Congressional District Democrats for October 17 at the Yugoslav Hall in San Pedro.

Co-chairmen for the event are Marion Bird and James Simmons, both members of the State Central Committee. Others on the committee include: Jeannie Wilkerson, secretary; Harmon Belcher, in charge of tickets; Robert White, in charge of ads; Sylvia Zankich, hostess committee; and Harold Garvin and Don Aimar, publicity.

Tickets for the dinner are $5 and can be purchased from members of any of the Democratic Club in the district.
