

SCIENTISTS HONORED . . . Two Torrance residents receive certificates of awards honoring their educational work with the Los Angeles City Schools. They were part of a team of 20 scientists from Shell Oil and Shell Chemical Companies that gave lectures to high school chemistry and physics classes during the past school year. Recipients, from left, are R. L. Davis and T. F. Graham. Making the presentations are G. S. Williamson, Shell's Torrance plant manager, and A. M. Chapman of Los Angeles City Schools.
