Ann Baker Becomes Bride Of Eric H. Winkelmann

Wearing a traditional wedding gown of white silk organza, Miss Ann Baker, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Baker, 2733 Cabrillo Ave. walked down the aisle of the First Lutheran Church, on the arm of her father at 2:30 p.m. on Aug. 29, to plight her marriage promises with Eric H. Winkelmann, 20903 Amie Ave. Mr. and Mrs. A. Winkelmann of Detroit, Mich., are parents of the bridegroom.

The organza wedding gown had a fitted bodice with a scalloped neckline edged with lace, long pointed sleeves and a bouffant lace appliqued skirt. A pearl tiara held the illusion veil and the bride carried white roses, orchids and stephanotis.

Miss Kathy Baker, in pale blue chiffon, was the maid of honor. She carried white carnations and blue gladioli.

Bridesmaids, Mrs. John Wodarz, Misses Bernice Chason and Anne Marie Winkelmann, were gowned in medium blue. Their bouquets were blue carnations. Stacie Schurman in pink chiffon was flower girl. Phillip Webb was ring bearer.

Karl Winkelmann stood as his brother's best man and ushers were John Wodarz, James Ericson and Troy McDaniel.

Rev. P. Hiller officiated at the vow exchange as Wayne Allen played a background of organ music.

A reception attended by 75 guests was held at 1933 Pacific Coast Hwy.

The new home has been established in Torrance.

At Hollywood Palladium Breakfast to Kick-Off United Crusade Event

Spearheading the residential appeal of United Crusade in Torrance as well as throughout the County will be the Gold Key Award Breakfast Tuesday, Oct. 6, in the Hollywood Palladium.

Screen celebrity Loretta Young Lewis will speak at the 23rd annual awards event which will compliment some 1,000 community-minded volunteers of United Way and the American Red Cross from all sections of Los Angeles County.

Loretta Young Lewis, in addition to her acting career has spent 20 years as a devoted volunteer at St. Anne's Maternity Hospital and seven years as president of this United Way Agency's board of directors.

For the event to be a successful kick-off of United Crusade, the first annual partnership campaign of the United Way and the American Red Cross, attendance is encouraged by women from each community.

Organizing the local delegation to attend the affair are Mrs. Kenneth Uyeda, Mrs. Robert Sullivan, Mrs. Stanley Heiman and Mrs. Florence Ono, Torrance residential chairmen for United Crusade.

In 1942 the first Gold Key was awarded to the late Mrs. Albert (Kate) Crutcher, known for her lifetime of volunteer service to Children's Hospital. The 1964 wearer of the significant key will be a woman who has shown noteworthy volunteer leadership for at least 10 years in health, welfare and religious fields. Her identity will remain a closely guarded secret until the moment of revelation at the climax of the Gold Key Breakfast.

Mrs. Ward Keller of Rolling Hills and her Agency Leadership Awards Committee which includes Mrs. Robert Wattenberger of Miraleste is weighing the impressive service records of devoted volunteers in United Way agencies to select the six men and women who will be honored for their outstanding work in one or more community services.

The Larks, Junior League of Los Angeles choral group and recording artists, will provide the musical setting for the recognition breakfast.
