Choirs Plan Festival of Negro Music

Peninsula choirs will present "A Festival of Negro Folk Music" Nov. 1 at 8 p.m. in the Palos Verdes High School multi-purpose room.

Jester Hairston, composer, conductor and authority on Negro spirituals, will serve as narrator and lead the community singing.

Participating churches are Congregation Ner Tamid, Neighborhood, Pacific Unitarian, Riviera Methodist, St. Luke's Presbyterian, St. Peter's by the Sea Presbyterian, Temple Beth-El and Wayfarer's Chapel.

The Holman Avenue Methodist choir of 85 voices will join the Peninsula Interfaith choir under the direction of David Bowick, minister of music at the Holman church.

Jane Skinner Hardester, member of the music faculty at El Camino College, will conduct the peninsula choir rehearsal. General chairman of the festival is Mrs. Paul Bennett.

Sponsored by the Peninsula Council of Churches and the Peninsula Interfaith Committee on Fair Housing, admission is $1. Tickets may be purchased from choir members of the participating churches.

Trustees Meet At South High

The next regular meeting of the Board of Education will be held Oct. 19 at South High School. The board will meet at each of the city's four high schools during the fall.

Purpose of the high school meetings is to encourage parents and students to attend meetings of the board.
