Figure on North High having another tough varsity basketball team this season. At full strength the Saxons will undoubtedly be a serious threat to repeat as Sky League champions.

North High, it should be pointed out, made a clean sweep of the varsity, junior varsity, Bees and Cees a year ago.

Returning to the line-up as a potent offensive and defensive weapon for North is Ron Taylor, the giant 6-foot, 11-inch senior letterman.

Taylor gave Coach Skip Enger the scare of the season in the Pacific Shores Tournament Thursday when he seriously sprained his ankle and played only one minute against Mira Costa in a 73-62 loss. The night before Taylor tallied 26 points in a rally victory over Torrance, 55-53.

But much to the delight of Enger was the way

The Saxons, without Taylor, led from wire to wire while footballer Don Albin connected for 20 points.

The Saxons get a lot of work from Forward Bruce Troglin, a 6-5 senior with jayvee experience. Jess Jacobs, 6-2, shows plenty of rebounding ability, Guard Greg Shearer can shoot well from the floor, and Guard Greg Weinstrom handles the Coach Enger has taken a particular fancy for one of his top nine players, Dave Neilson, a 6-5 freshman, who played well in the first three games of the Pacific Shores tournament.

In commenting on Taylor's injury, Coach Enger said the heighty center would be out of action without taking any chances for at least 10 days. There's a possibility Taylor will get off crutches and return to action for the Beverly Hills Tournament starting Wednesday, Dec. 16.

Redondo Shows Top Strength In 48-44 Win

After a close look at most of the Pacific Shores strong Glendale quint, 48-44, in the semi-finals in what was considered a superb test of strength.

The Hawks will have Mira Costa to contend with for the Bay League title, while Palos Verdes will offer a pesky challenge when the pennant chase begins in January. Redondo and Mira Costa were 9.1 each last year. There seems to be no limit to height in prep basketball anymore. Redondo, with a 6-4 average among its top fivesome, was still "dwarfed" by three Glendale Dynamiters in their spectacular battle Friday. Glendale is obviously the type of team that 9-1 each last year.
