

McKnight-Carroll Names Are Linked in Marriage

Rev. James King stood before the flower-banked altar of the First Methodist Church in Redondo Beach at 8 p.m. on Nov. 6 to officiate at the double-ring marriage ceremony in which Miss Ruth McKnight, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William M. McKnight, 459 Calle de Castellana, became the bride of James Steven Carroll. Parents of the bridegroom are Mr. and Mrs. Oran H. Carroll, Redondo Beach.

Escorted to the altar by her father, the bride wore a floor length Chantilly lace and organza gown. The dress had a scalloped neckline and long pointed sleeves. The skirt was of tiers of lace and silk organza over taffeta. A headpiece of orange blossoms and pearls held the illusion veil and the bride carried white orchids and carnations.

Miss Bonnie Goldsby was maid of honor and Miss Judy White was bridesmaid. Candelighters were Miss Orine Carroll and Mrs. James Knippel. They were gowned in long azalea pink crepe and satin dresses and carried pink carnations and rosebuds. Lora Gamboa, in a long pink gown, was flower girl.

Joseph Fuller was best man and ushers were James Knippel, William McKnight and Blake Livingston. Mitchell Duryea was ring bearer.

Mrs. Ernest Andrews played the nuptial music and Mrs. Harold Gilliland was soloist.

After the wedding, a reception was held at the church. Miss Judy Coates was in charge of the bride's book and Miss Sherri Coates was at the gift table.

After a San Francisco honeymoon, the newlyweds are at home in Inglewood. The bride, a graduate of South High School attended El Camino College. She was an assistant teacher at Broadacres Pre-School in Rolling Hills.

Her husband, a Redondo High graduate attended El Camino College and is employed by Space Technology Laboratories Inc. He is a member of Redondo DeMolay.

British Club Yule Dance Saturday Eve

British Commonwealth and Friends club and guests will gather at the American Legion Hall, 1109 Van Ness in Torrance, next Saturday evening Dec. 19 for a Christmas dance, beginning at 8:30 p.m. and continuing until 1 p.m.

Alex Hunter and his Gay Gordons will furnish the dance music. Refreshments will be served throughout the evening and there will be door prizes.

A special welcome will be extended to new members of the club, Messrs. and Mmes Derrick Burton and William Creswick of Torrance; Don Ellis and James Gilliland, Redondo Beach; James Campbell, Palos Verdes; T. Hargrove and Edmond Ballard, Lomita; and Miss Anne Hobbs, Palos Verdes.

Coop Nursery School Dinner Thursday Eve

Torrance Cooperative Nursery School will hold a potluck dinner tomorrow evening, Dec. 17, at 7 p.m. at the school, which will be festively decorated in the Christmas theme.

The dinner is being planned by Mrs. Blas Rivas, hospitality chairman, and her committee, Mmes. Donald Bennett, George Hudak, Robert McConnell, Vince McCullough, and the school director, Mrs. Mary Ann Kessenick.

For further information about the nursery school, Mrs. Bruce Brown may be called.

Gala Yule Party at Flagg Home

Miniature Christmas trees flanked by red tapers decorated the tables last Thursday evening when Mrs. Ray Flagg entertained her bridge club at its Christmas dinner party.

Champagne punch was served from a bowl encircled with red holiday candies, after which dinner was served.

Guests then gathered around the brilliantly decorated Christmas tree for a gift exchange and for the revealing of "secret pals." The names of new "secret pals" for the year were selected.

Special guests at the dinner party were the girls who delivered the "secret pal" gifts during the year. They were Grace McCabe, Jackie Megow, Linda Flagg and Charlotte Flagg.

Club members attending were Mmes. Don Anderson, Wesley Megow, Von Whittington, Al Schneider, Joe Cannon, Fred Hilton, and Marvin McCabe. Mrs. Leroy Pulliam was welcomed as a new member.

Family Party

Celebrating the birthdays of Billy Tolson, who was 9, and Bobby Tolson, who became 13, Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Tolson took their family out to dinner last Sunday evening, after which they went to Hollywood to see Walt Disney's "Mary Poppins."

Others in the party were the Tolson daughters, Cindy and Susan.

B'nai B'rith Meets Tonight

Southview Chapter, B'nai B'rith Women will meet tonight at 8 p.m. in the Recreation room of the Commodore Apts., 3848 W. 226th St., Torrance.

Stephen Zellen, chairman of the advisor recruitment program of the B'nai B'rith Youth Organization, will speak on "Our Youth Today."

Mrs. S. Lampel requests that all members, who have not contributed to the Holiday Basket Fund, do so at this meeting. The chapter will deliver three baskets to needy families on Dec. 23.

DA Council Party Dec. 17

Golden Bear Council 17, Daughters of America, will hold a potluck dinner and birthday party for members tomorrow evening at 6:30 p.m. at the Torrance Woman's Club, 1422 Engracia Ave. Gladia Yost and Ruth Deems will be hostesses. There will also be an exchange of Christmas cards.

Regular meeting will be held at 7:45 p.m. with Vi Hubbard, councilor, in charge.

Las Palmas Girls Feted By Dianas

Redondo Beach Dianas are staging their Christmas party today for the girls at the Las Palmas School for Emotionally Disturbed Girls, according to Mrs. Raymond Williams, philanthropy chairman.

The girls will receive individual gifts of hair spray, rollers, and hair bonnets. The cottage will receive gifts of a large bookcase and phonograph records.

A Christmas buffet table will feature do-it-yourself sandwiches of ham and cheese, apples, raisins, dates, nuts, and for dessert there will be gingerbread and whipped cream.

Also on the committee are Mmes. Eldon Pratt, club president, Philip Mac Bride, William Tolliffe, Lee Hausman, John Dyke, and Howard Towle.

The Dianas are a member of the California Federation of Women's Clubs, Marina District, Junior Membership.
