The Ports of Call Players' Spoil Rock Hunter?" will open their fourth and final production of the summer series, "Will Success Spoil the hit of Broadway and the screen, with Jayne Mansfield creating the role of the blond Hollywood sex queen. Linda Hummel of San Pedro (last seen in the Ports of Call production of "The Servant of Two Masters") has this choice role in this comic glimpse of backstage life in the movie industry. The mild-mannered reporter who comes to interview the siren while she lounges for a massage is played by Matt Bond of San Pedro (seen earlier in "Blithe Spirit"). The Mephistophelian agent who urges him to sell his soul to win the blonde and enjoy her favors forever is played by Ron Albertsen, who also appeared in "The Servant of Two Masters." The satiric role of the successful playwright playboy who can't write his second play is in the hands of Ron Bradford of Manhattan Beach. The movie mogul is played by Hal Thompson of Long Beach. Gordi Yeaton of Long Beach, as the blond's brawny husband, Selma Ajbinder of San Pedro as the secretary, and Bayce Gitzen of Long Beach
