tions of them all.

The local vacationer, with more than six weeks set aside, crossed the United States on the El Capitan enjoying the luxury of the streamliner and seeing the country from its "astrodome." Her destination was Charleston, W. Va. for a visit with her sister Mrs. K. L. Adkins and other relatives, Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Aultz. Aultz.

From Virginia, she took a bus down the eastern sea-board to Winter Park, Fla. to spend some time with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Claude Ryan and her brother and wife, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph

The Ralph Ryans raise The Ralph Ryans raise greyhounds and on her visit to their farm, Mrs. McClure saw "Miss Whirl," who had recently won the $80,000 International Classic at the Flagler Race Track in Miami. Another highlight was her visit to the Mountain Park Rancho, owned by relatives, who breed Aral relatives, who breed Ara-bian horses. Here, she saw their prize winning Arabian "Belkyer" who is starred in Walt Disney's new picture "El Blanco" to be released in color on television in 1966. The Disney crew had just visited the farm to make the picture in which "Belkyer" will be known as "El Blanco."

From Winter Park, the local traveler went on to Hollywood, Fla. to visit an aunt, Mrs. H. B. Ryan, on to Miami for more sightseeing before taking the bus back to Charleston for a visit to Charleston for a visit with Mr. McClure's brother and wife, Mr. and Mrs. P. L. McClure. The return trip was made on the El Capitan.
