

JUBILEE SERVICE . . . The First Baptist Church, 4458 182nd St., Redondo Beach, will introduce the "Jubilee Service," featuring a musical program combined with a sermon this Sunday, according to the Rev. Six Choirs Combine For Choral Service

Christ the King Lutheran Church's six choirs will combine to present a choral festival service at 7 p.m. Sunday, according to the Rev. Elmer E. Christiansen, pastor of the church.

The church sponsors five choral groups and a brass choir, the Rev. Mr. Christiansen said.

Each choir will participate individually in the consecration of the choirs, then join the congregation for several numbers. The service will be held in the newly dedicated sanctuary at 2706 W. 82nd St.

The church sponsors five choral groups and a brass choir, the Rev. Mr. Christiansen said.

The choirs are supervised by Fred H. Wilkins, director of music, and include more than 225 singers from first grade through adults. Wilkins is a past president of the Choral Conductors' Guild and is now studying for a doctoral degree in church music at the University of Southern California.

Miss Janet Myren, an ordained social worker, directs the high school choir. Mrs. Strumpfer, a former Torrance teacher, is director of the primary choir. Lee Ruecker, a music major and graduate of Long Beach State College, is conductor of the brass choir.

The church organist, Kent Nelson, will accompany the choirs. He will play on a new 31 rank Reuter pipe organ which was dedicated two weeks ago.

Dr. McBride To Be Guest At Services

Central Evangelical United Brethren Church will observe "Dr. Ira McBride Day" Sunday at the church's regular worship services.

Dr. McBride will preach at the 11 a.m. service and be guest of honor at a potluck luncheon to be sponsored by the Adult Christian Endeavor Society. Mrs. Kathleen McBride and the couple's son, Ira Jr., will attend.

The church is located on the corner of Marcelina and Arlington avenues.

Dr. McBride recently retired after 40 years of service as a missionary in Nigeria, West Africa.

Group Seeks Optometric Affiliation

New chairman of the South Bay and Centinela Optometric Group is Dr. Bruce Ewing of Redondo Beach. He succeeds Dr. Robert Fleming of Torrance.

Main goal of the group this year will be to reorganize into a formal society affiliated with the California Optometric Association, according to Dr. Ewing.

"This will enable us to better serve the visual needs of the people of the Southwest," said the doctor. "For example programs such as amblyopia detection can be offered as a public service."

The new chairman, who is active in the Lions Club programs of sight conservation, resides in Torrance with his wife, Lucilla, and two sons, David and Glen.
