

Marine League Teams Play

What could be the best race in Marine League annual shapes up with the first "biggie" pitting Narbonne against Banning. Carson invades Gardena and Jordan treks to San Pedro with all hands concerned showing good potential this fall.

Despite the absence of half-back Ken Bridges (out for three weeks) due to a knee injury, Paul Huebner's Banning Flots bristle with strength. (Fullback Sam Gipson, 9.9 sprinter who has averaged nearly 150 yards rushing per game, is the No. 1 threat, but QB's Ted Flores and Joe Mendoza have the ability to mount a strong air game with ends Dan Adelman, Richard Martinez, Walter Carrillo, Steve Seward, and Rollie Thomas on the receiving side.

Narbonne also has a fine interior line, spearheaded by tackles Clark Davis and Rod White and guard Martin Nazawa. Quarterback Joe Di Massa, ends Larry Perazzo and Jim Guillou, and running backs Jess Mota and Bobby Dean give punch to coach Jack Bobinette's Gaucho attack.

Banning is out to avenge two straight losses.

AERIALISTS . . . Steve Hertzog (82) and Augie Felando (81) give South High a double passing target for QB Scott Christensen. They are expected to be back in action Friday when the Spartans play at Redondo High Stadium.

... South Plays Redondo

Coach Pete Austin expects his team to be tough in league action.

Coach Ed Levy of North, however, is becoming more impressed with his "fill-in" quarterback Jerry Ball, a junior, and should Steve Schmitz and Ken Major get into the line-up, the Saxons could give the Mustangs a good battle.

The young coach credited Steve Jones, his fullback, with a great job on defense against Santa Monica, in spite of the score. Jones averaged 3.1 yards per carry as well.

With Dale Hewitt limited to defensive duty, the Spartans have not been at full strength on offense. The loss to Santa Monica was preceded by 7-6 losses to Pioneer League powerhouses Palos Verdes and El Segundo.

Besides beating Hawthorne Redondo has beaten Torrance, 14-0, and Lawndale, 21-13.

North will run into a burly hard running backfield when Mira Costa invades the North Stadium. All-Bay League full-back Jeff Colmer, South
