Newly-organized for women of the South Bay Area is the Camino Real Federated Re-publican Women.

Purpose of forming an evening meeting group in the South Bay is to offer active mem-bership to working women and young mothers, who find it difficult to be absent from home during the day.

The club has been meeting on the second Wednesday evening of each month at 7:30 p.m. at members' homes, to hear speakers on the proposed East-West Freeway, Medicare, and the Republican Party structure.

Educational programs are offered to keep members well informed while the work of electing Republican candidates at every level in government is the aim and pledge of all members.

Camino Real Federated Republican Wom-en will send their first delegation to the Cali-fornia State Federation convention in Fresno

Oct. 28 and 29.

Any woman in the area wishing more information on the newly-organized group may call Mrs. William Gray or Mrs. Harry Mooney.
