About Cars and Things
 by
Ray Vane

FACTORY BRASS came out the other day, popped for a fancy lunch and presented us with some kind words and an award as a "Customer Care Dealer." The words on it say:

"For having established a continuous program of action designed to maintain a high level of customer satisfaction."

Pretty fancy language, huh?

The award was pleasing to us, because everybody has worked hard to do right by our customers, and it is nice to have the factory recognize this.

What really makes the day for us is to get one of those fan letters or notes from a customer, saying kind words about the service manager or the sales department.

In all candor, we sometimes get complaints, too. Not many, but we want to get these too. If something is wrong we want to know about it. Maybe trouble can be corrected, or avoided in the future.

First step in joining our "Pen Pal Club" is to do business with us.

The factory thinks we're top notch in both sales and service customer satisfaction. We, of course (blush) think we're the best anywhere—yes, anywhere.

We invite you to give us a test run—at 2909 Pacific Coast Highway, Torrance.
