Spartans Speak

By Norma Burkus

"Hey, Hey, what do you say? Let's let the girls play!" And they will. The annual Powder Puff football game is coming in the near future. The Council girls vs. the Pep Squad girls will fight it out on the football field, while our Varsity boys perform as the Pep Squad. The Powder Puff game will be held in conjunction with a Pep Rally, so the entire school can get in on the fun.

Friday, Nov. 5, will find the Class of '65 back at South High digging up past memories. Yes, Homecoming '65 will feature last year's senior activities with individual "memory" displays. The post-graduates will also view the 1966 Homecoming Queen, who will be selected this week.

These girls will be featured in a special assembly Tuesday, Nov. 2, so the entire student body can become better acquainted with the nominees. Congratulations girls, and good luck to you all. Every month the Girls League cabinet selects a girl who has contributed and worked the most for South High. September's "Girl of the Month" award went to Tamra Kuchenbecker, our commissioner of pep. Keep up the fine work, Tammy.

THREE MORE clubs have been added to the Spartans long list of organizations. For the mathematically inclined, a Math Club has been formed. Folklories and the Society of Herodytes, a social studies organization, also have been added. Get acquainted with South High's various clubs and take advantage of them. The Boys League intramural volleyball games are going full blast during second lunch. The "Volley Ballers" are leading in the competition and will play the Phillips, Ricky Schnek, and Teri Ann Shott. See you next week.
